Senator Ashurst Charges Trap
Is Set to Catch Members of Committee

By Associated Press

Washington, D. C.—The Daugherty investigators Thursday heard, Roxie Stinson, divorced wife of Jess Smith, go through a cross examination by the attorney general's counsel and decided to consider whether attorney general's brother M. S. Daugherty, Washington courthouse banker, and others of his bank should be cited for contempt for failing to answer committee summons, and listened to a long recital by H. L. Scaife who investigated aircraft frauds and who charged his investigations were "blocked."

Miss Stinson's testimony was interrupted frequently by clashes between committee members and counsel for the attorney general mainly in efforts of counsel to bring out the names of five men who, she said Smith told her, had made $33,000,000 in oil stocks.

ASHURST FEARS TRAP
The committee had no interest in the matter but former Senator Chamberlain said he expected the witness to say one of the men was "the president of the United States." Senator Ashurst retorted the committee would not be "trapped into besmirching the name of a man now dead."

An executive session of the committee was called to consider the case of M. S. Daugherty after the sergeant at arms had reported him not present and Paul W. Howland the attorney general's lawyer, had said he was not in the city.

Scaife gave the committee a detailed account of his work investigating war frauds, especially the aircraft cases, and charged that he was "blocked" at various times in his efforts.

RECORD CROWD SEES PRELATES INVESTED

Majority of Spectators in Roman Catholic Ceremony Are Americans

Rome—Pope Pius Thursday publicly conferred the red hat on Cardinals Hayes and Mundelein, the final act in the elevation of the two American prelates to membership in the sacred college.

The ceremony, performed in the right transept of St. Peter's, was carried out with all pomp and pageantry of the Roman Catholic church in a setting, the like of which does not exist outside the eternal city.

It was the first public consistory ever held in the huge basilica, and it was witnessed by a congregation which in numbers exceeded three or four times those attending similar functions in the past. It was truly an American day, both from the fact that the only cardinals raised were United States citizens and that the great majority of the spectators were also.

WAUSAU YOUTH KILLED WHILE CATCHING RIDE

Wausau—Joseph Ruzek, 18-year-old high school student, was instantly killed Wednesday when he slipped under the wheels of a freight train and two companions were alighted from.

The boys had left school and caught the passing freight train for a ride of four blocks. Ruzek's companions found his body which had been badly mutilated by the car wheels on the side of the track.

LIQUOR DEALER TELLS OF PLOT WITH LAWYER

New York—Daniel J. Shields, described as a liquor dealer of Johnstown, Pa., was arrested Thursday by federal agents, charged with conspiring with James F. Johnson, an attorney of the legal division of the prohibition unit at Washington to obtain liquor permits, and with paying $6,000 in bribes to a clerk in the prohibition unit to furnish copies of prohibition agent's reports.

Landslide In Italy Claims Many Victims

By Associated Press
Salerno, Italy—The gravity of the landslide in the vicinity of Amalfi Wednesday grows hourly. Estimates here place the deaths in the villages along the coast at 50, but many of these places are cut off both from road and wire communication and the exact number of victims is unknown.

The bulk of the victims are reported at the village of Vietri (A Rome dispatch late Wednesday night said there were at least 100 dead at Vietri).

The sea now is the only approach to the scene, and fishermen's boats are hurrying to the succor of the victims with supplies. Vice Admiral Lobetti, aboard a destroyer, is also headed for the affected zone.

The slide was caused by the undermining of the shore by recent violent storms.

POINCARÉ BACK IN PLACE AS PREMIER

French Prime Minister Takes up Work of Reconstituting Cabinet

By Associated Press
Paris—Premier Poincaré reached the ministry of foreign affairs early Thursday and immediately went to work, continuing the consultations he began Wednesday night with a view to reconstituting the cabinet.

He received M. D'Aubigny, under-secretary of state for finance at 8:30 and later Senator DeSelves chairman of the foreign affairs committee of the senate, with whom he held a long conversation.

Next he summoned Maurice Bokanowski, reporter of the budget, who is most prominently mentioned as successor to Finance Minister De Lasteyrie.

M. Poincaré is proceeding to the formation of a cabinet as though it were a matter of daily routine. M. D'Aubigny said he called as a personal friend and the other callers declared they saw the premier on matters entirely foreign to the formation of a new ministry.

The premier also conferred with M. Millie's LaCroux and M. Daracq, respectively chairman of the finance committees of the senate and chamber, in an effort, it is reported, to straighten out the differences between the two houses over the pension bill, which caused the downfall of the cabinet Wednesday.

At noon M. Poincaré left for the place of the Elysée.

"I am not yet in a position to give a definite reply at the present moment," he said.

"I am simply going to inform the president of the republic that I have conferred with my political friends this morning and will continue the consultations this afternoon."

FOUR DROWN AS CAR SKIDS INTO CREEK

Benton Harbor, Mich.—Four men were drowned Wednesday on lakeside road, 20 miles south of St. Joseph, when their automobile skidded and overturned in a creek.

They were James Hoover Sawyer, Mich.; Charles Ketchell, Lakeside; Fred Poe, New Buffalo, and Henry Stevens, Lakeside.

J. Ketchell, New Buffalo, another occupant, escaped unhurt.

PIONEER HANGS SELF TO ESCAPE HIS INFIRMITIES

Oshkosh—Suffering from infirmities of old age and weakened mentally by failing health, William McCulloch, a pioneer resident of the town of Neshkum, hanged himself Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. McCulloch lived with his son, Herbert McCulloch, on the farm he had occupied for more than 60 years. He was nearly 84.

California Senator Forges Ahead of Coolidge in Primaries as Rural Returns Come in.

By Associated Press
Sioux Falls, S. D.—Rounding into the final stretch, Senator Hiram Johnson was leading President Calvin Coolidge by a nose early Thursday in related returns from Tuesday's state wide Republican presidential primary in South Dakota.

For the first time since tabulation of unofficial returns began, the California senator forged into the lead late Wednesday night as rural precincts' reports cut down Coolidge's lead.

Only a few votes separated the two when tabulation was resumed Thursday in one of the closest state wide contests South Dakota has ever known.

Recapitulation of returns, including elimination of one duplicated report, showed that in 1,363 precincts Johnson's lead was only 35 votes. At one time his lead was several hundred.

These precincts gave Senator Johnson 35,458 and President Coolidge 35,423. In the Republican senatorial race, 1,271 precincts gave Governor W. H. McMaster 38,421 votes and Senator Sterling 27,739. Governor McMaster's majority over Senator Sterling continued to increase as additional precincts were heard from.

His nomination is assured.

COOLIDGE LOSSES GROUND
Leading at one time by more than 2,500 votes, President Coolidge gradually lost ground Wednesday, his lead dwindled with the late day returns, and he finally was forced into second position by the Californian.

Senator Johnson's showing Wednesday and Wednesday night led his state headquarters to predict that he would defeat the president by a majority of 12,000 to 15,000 votes. His supporters previously had predicted victory for him by at least 10,000 votes.

Despite the president's loss of the lead Wednesday night, Coolidge state leaders declared that returns received by them indicated a "majority for Coolidge of 3,500 to 4,000."

On the face of available returns, Johnson has a lead in 34 counties and Coolidge in 26.

William G. McAdoo, candidate for the Democratic presidential preference endorsement, carried the state nearly 3 to 1 over the faction seeking to send an uninstructed delegation to the national convention at New York.

Physicians' Bulletin Declares Condition of Senator Satisfactory

Washington, D. C.—Senator LaFollette of Wisconsin has developed pneumonia. Senator LaFollette's office at the capitol Thursday issued the following physician's bulletin.

"Senator LaFollette has developed pneumonia. His present condition is satisfactory."

Senator LaFollette has been absent from his office for several weeks and his condition heretofore has been reported from his home as being nothing more serious than a cold. Some time ago he had influenza which left him in a weakened condition.

Senator LaFollette for several years has suffered frequent illness attacks, which have at times been so acute as to require emergency treatment and to temporarily incapacitate him.

SON LEAVES FOR CAPITAL
Madison—Philip LaFollette, son of Senator R. M. LaFollette, left Madison Thursday morning for Washington having been summoned to the bedside of the senator who is reported ill with pneumonia. The other members of the immediate family of Senator LaFollette are in Washington.

BORAH ASKS ECONOMIC

Coolidge Supporters Expected Defeat In South Dakota Voting

Daugherty Awaits End of Investigation and Launching of Counter Attack to Offer Resignation.

By DAVID LAWRENCE
Copyright 1924 by the Post Pub. Co.
Washington, D. C.—Harry Daugherty went in one door and Henry Cabot went out the other.

Thus might the visit of the Attorney General and the Republican leader of the senate to the office of President Coolidge be described. For a few brief moments, the newspaper men saw visions of a reconciliation between the senior senator from Massachusetts and the man who is under investigation by a senate committee.

Not long ago Mr. Lodge advised the president that the attorney general would have his day in court. Mr. Lodge thought the Democrats would only use the occasion to keep the Daugherty case in the headlines terminally. Some who differed with Mr. Lodge thought the Democrats would do that anyway and that a better defense could be made by Mr. Daugherty if he remained in office fighting than if he quit under fire.

The Democrats are living up to predictions. They are fighting the attorney general but he is hiding his hand.

HONDURAN CAPITAL STORMED BY REBELS

By Associated Press
Washington, D. C.—United revolutionary forces Wednesday started an attack on Tegucigalpa, capital of Honduras.

The fighting began early in the day and at night had been marked by a loss of ground by the revolutionists in the territory about the city.

A radio message from the cruiser Milwaukee at Amapala, gave little detail of the battle except to say that it had so far centered about the radio station on the outskirts of the city. The radio plant, at the time the message was filed, still was held by the revolutionists.

COOLIDGE STARTS WORK TO RELIEVE AGRICULTURE

Washington, D. C.—Inauguration by the federal Reserve board of a study designed to suggest practicable methods of stabilizing international exchange and extension of the service of the department of agriculture have been determined upon by President Coolidge as two steps in an administration farm relief program.

PROGRESSIVE LEAGUE BACKS BOB LAFOLLETTE

St. Louis, Mo.—Senator Robert M. LaFollette of Wisconsin received the presidential endorsement of the National Progressive League of Missouri at a meeting here Wednesday night.

time and expects to launch his counter attack shortly. Then it may be taken for granted that he will resign for he will not continue to make himself the subject of controversy on the eve of a presidential campaign.

Mr. Daugherty said he had "routine" under consideration with the president. He had nothing else to say. There appears to be an understanding between Mr. Coolidge and his attorney general, however, and at least until the investigation is completed he will stay in the cabinet.

Wednesday was a day of suppressed excitement in the White House. The returns from South Dakota came so slowly as to make impossible any expression of administration opinion.

But for the last few days, the Coolidge managers have given the hint that they did not expect a victory in South Dakota and would be satisfied if the president made a good run. The president had been told in advance that most of the congressional delegation from South Dakota was against him and that it would be hard for him to win unless he could make a personal campaign as Senator Hiram Johnson has been making. Fighting a primary by long distance is hardly as effective as a personal visit but the obligations of the office prevent Mr. Coolidge from venturing forth to far-away points. That's where the man on the outside has the advantage over the incumbent in the White House.

COLORADO FOR COOLIDGE

Another bit of police was brought to the president Wednesday by C. O. Hamlin, editor of the "Colorado Springs Telegraph Gazette," who is slated to be Republican national committee man from Colorado. Mr. Hamlin lunched with the president. He said Mr. Coolidge was stronger than the party in the west and that the chances of carrying western states were improving daily.

At the time for the national conventions grows shorter, the gathering in of delegates for Coolidge continues in such fashion as to strengthen the opinion that opposition in the Republican national convention to the nomination of the chief executive is diminishing. The South Dakota primary has been regarded as a set-back for the president, but an overwhelming defeat for the president would have stirred the hopes of opponents. The close race in South Dakota has not dampened the enthusiasm of the Coolidge partisans but has given them the idea that they can at least hold their own in the western states, something which a few weeks ago might have been open to question.

LONDON FACES ARMY RULE IN TRAM STRIKE

Government Will Call Meeting of Privy Council to Consider Situation

By Associated Press
London—So serious does the government regard the situation created by continuance of the tram and bus strike and the apparently inevitable entry of the subway men into the fight Friday night, according to several newspapers, that a privy council has been called for Thursday to consider proclaiming "a condition of national emergency."

Some papers say that issuance of the proclamation has already been decided upon and that the meeting has been summoned to give the king's formal consent may be given. The king has gone to Knowsley for the Grand National steeplechase Friday and it is stated that the privy council will meet there.

If a state of emergency is proclaimed it will be under the provisions of the emergency powers act of 1920, which when invoked confers upon the government virtually the same powers as the wartime defense of the realm act.

It enables the government, subject to the approval of parliament, to make wide and compulsory provisions for the safety and life of the community, including taking over control of any public service using army and navy forces therefor and commandeering private vehicles and materials for the same purpose. The act was last put into operation during the miners' strike of 1920.

Such a step would bring the present labor government into conflict with a large section of their supporters, whose opposition to the act is well known.

HI ATTACKS LAX OIL PROSECUTION

Johnson Says Daugherty's Position in Cabinet Is Untenable

By Associated Press
Mount Vernon, Ill.—Renewing his attack upon the administration for its failure to take "vigorous and decisive action" in the Teapot Dome and Daugherty investigations in Washington, Senator Hiram Johnson of California, candidate for the Republican presidential nomination, Thursday demanded again the resignation of Attorney General Daugherty from the cabinet.

Senator Johnson's speech here was the first of his three-day tour of southern and central Illinois.

"There is no question but that Daugherty will go—his position in the cabinet is untenable. It is only a question of time," Johnson declared.

He urged governmental aid to restore to economic stability in agriculture, attacked the policy of full representation to southern states in the Republican national convention and outlined his plan for payment of a soldier bonus.

AGED WAUSAU WOMAN IS FATALLY HURT IN FALL

By Associated Press
Wausau—Mrs. Carolina Maas, aged 69 years, died of a fractured skull Wednesday night, the result of a fall down a cellarway at St. Paul's guild hall. Mrs. Maas was attending a meeting at St. Paul's church and by mistake stepped through the door at the head of the stairway instead of into the lavatory. She was hurled to the hospital where she died an hour after the accident. She is survived by her widower and two sons. She was a sister of Carl Gerlach of Milwaukee.

Tells Story

AL JENNINGS

Al Jennings former train bandit and now a preacher, Thursday testified before the committee investigating Attorney General Daugherty that "Jake" Hamon paid $1,000,000 to have Warren G. Harding nominated for the presidency.

That Hamon had "nominated" Warren G. Harding for the presidency and that it had cost him (Hamon) $1,000,000.

That the cost of carrying Oklahoma for Harding had been $500,000. That Hamon had paid Harry M. Daugherty $25,000. Senator Jones Penrose of Pennsylvania $50,000 and Will H. Hays chairman of the Republican national committee $25,000.

That Hamon was to become secretary of the interior and share in the public lands and expected with the money he would make later to become President.

KNEW HAMON FOR YEARS
Jennings said he had known Hamon for a number of years and had gone with him to the Chicago convention. "We went to a room in one of the hotels," continued the witness.

"He told me Harding would be nominated the next day and that it had cost him a million dollars. He said he had paid $25,000 to Jones Penrose and in conversation it was brought out in some way—I will not be perfectly clear about it—that it was agreed by Mr. Daugherty, Will Hays, and he named somebody else from Ohio, that he would be secretary of the interior. He said it had all been settled. He said Mr. Daugherty was at first in favor of Senator Fall for the position, but that he had bought them all over and that it had cost him a lot of money to do it."

"I understand that Mr. Hamon told you that in the makeup of the cabinet of Mr. Harding," said Senator Spencer "Republican, Missouri," that Mr. Daugherty was in favor of Mr. Fall.

"Yes, but that it had been all arranged that he, Mr. Hamon, was to be secretary of the interior."

"Do you think all the information he gave you turned out with the same correctness as his that?"

"That was the whole deal and that was what he expected to get in on."

Replying to inquiries from Senator Dill, Democrat, Washington Jennings said:

WANTED PUBLIC LANDS

"He (Hamon) said the Democrats had not left much of the public land but that he would get the rest of it."

"Did he speak about the oil reserves?"

"He said public lands nothing that I can remember about oil reserves. He said money had been very potent in Washington as in the outlying districts of the United States."

"I have talked with people in Oklahoma about Hamon's expectations, and I do not think he kept it from anybody."

"I wish you would tell us in a continued story."

Head of Catholic Church in Russia Will Be Assisted by Polish Minister

By Associated Press
Warsaw — Archbishop Zepiak, head of the Roman Catholic church in Russia, has been released from prison in Moscow, the Polish foreign office is officially informed.

Louis Darowski, Polish minister in Moscow, has been instructed to arrange with the Soviets for the archbishop's transportation here with the shortest delay and in a manner corresponding to his rank, the intention of the Polish foreign office being to avoid for him the humiliation of forcible expulsion from Russia.

Archbishop Zepiak was sentenced to death by a Soviet tribunal March 1923, after a trial on charges of resisting the Bolshevik government. Protests immediately were made from many sources, including the governments of several countries, one of them the United States, and the Soviet executive committee sentenced to 10 years' solitary confinement.

The Vatican recently requested the British Government to intervene in behalf of Archbishop Zepiak and other Catholic prelates imprisoned in Russia at the coming Russo-British conference in London.

Careless Shampooing Spoils the Hair

Soap should be used very carefully, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Many soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much free alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it. The best thing for steady use is Multisided coconut oil shampoo, which is pure and greaseless, and is better than anything else you can use. Two or three teaspoonsful is sufficient to cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excess oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright lustrous, fluffy, wavy, and easy to manage. You can get Multisided coconut oil shampoo at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months. adv.

3 DAYS — STARTING TODAY
Whoops, m' dear!

let's go. Fun — verve — originality. Ride the waves of laughter with the galloping fish, the newest comedy innovator. Scores of pretty diving Venuses in a mirth fest with a newly wed who was all too true, and a trained seal who just wouldn't stay put. Floods of joy and real floods, too, but—
Oh, how funny.
At last—something really different!
Sidney Chaplin, Louise Fazenda, Ford Sterling, Chester Conklin, Lucille Rickson and the fish play the action laugh for laugh.

WINNESHIEK IS THREATENED BY ANOTHER DANGER

Sportsmen and Landowners Seek to Gain Control of River Sloughs

Since the Supreme court decision which forbids making a drainage district of the Winneshiek, a 20-mile strip containing about 17,000 acres of marsh land on the Mississippi river in Crawford co. this piece of land has become the bone of contention of several forces.

The Isaac Walton league which took up the fight against the drainage district now is confronted by two other forces for control of Winneshiek. It is said that 40,000,000 fin-gillrivers and fry are rescued in the sloughs of this part of the Mississippi and more than two-thirds of them come from Winneshiek. It cost the government 18 1/2 cents a thousand to rescue these fish, compared with 11 1/2 a thousand that it would have cost in private fish hatcheries. Also 25 to 50 per cent of all black bass for distribution to inland lakes of the United States came from this region.

Now several wealthy clubs are seeking control of the entire tract as a game preserve for their members. On the other hand, the Land Owners league, national in scope, whose object is to prevent trespassing and poaching by hunters, fishermen and campers, seems to be gathering impetus from the land owners in Winneshiek, who are beginning to see there may be as much money in the tract in its natural state as in a cultivated state, had the drainage project been successful.

A number of sportsmen propose that some public spirited enterprise save Winneshiek for the benefit of the tourists, sportsmen, visitors and home folks.

ON THE SCREEN

EARLE WILLIAMS HAS REAL FIGHT

Earle Williams, known as the wearer of typically handsome clothes and as the portrayal of strictly gentleman roles, surprised those on Vitaphone's western lot by engaging in a free for all fight in a scene for "Fortune's Mask," which will be shown at the New Bijou theatre Friday and Saturday.

Mr. Williams engaged in a frantic battle with a Central American commandante and a gang of the latter's soldiers. Oliver Hardy, who takes the part of the commandante, is a gigantic man and powerful. In the scene where Williams, as Dicker, escapes from jail and encounters the enemy he engages in a fist battle which resulted in several soldiers spending an uncomfortable night as the result of Mr. Williams' energetic efforts.

Williams had a particularly hard set-to with the gigantic Hardy, who, following the battle, was nursing a large bump on his head. "Fortune's Mask," reveals Earle Williams not only in a particularly refreshing and compelling picture but also as the athlete who has held his physical prowess subdued, in keeping with the "gentleman" parts which as a rule has been his lot to play.

THREE STARS AND TRAINED SEAL IN FILM

Thomas H. Ince has corralled three of the screen's cleverest comedians and a trained seal in "The Call of the Fish," his new comedy special now running at the Elita Theatre. Ince proved his mettle as a comedy pace-maker last year when he put out "The Hottentot." This faster and funnier than his racing story with a stellar cast that laughed year he offers a production both its way into the heart of the "fans" many years ago.

Louise Fazenda, Syd Chaplin, Ford Sterling and "Freddie" the seal are a riot! The fun starts in a theatre where a love-lorn little newlywed, played by Syd Chaplin, drops in seeking diversion after he has quarrelled with his bride of a few months. He is literally dragged into the plot when the manager of the "Diving Venus" who is performing a marvelous tank act with her trained seal collar him in assisting in smuggling the seal from the theatre. There is a heartless sheriff trying to attach the seal and ruin lovely Undine's act. Freddie wishes fervently that he had succeeded before the evening, which winds up in a spectacular flood, is over.

NAME THE MAN

"Name the Man" the first Victor Seastrom production since that director came to the Goldwyn studios from Sweden, opens Monday at the Elita theatre.

Included in the cast are Conrad Nagel, Mabel Busch, Fanny Ruth Miller, Robert Bosworth, Craighton Hale, DeWitt C. Jennings, Evelyn Selbie and many other well-known players.

The story was adapted to the screen by Paul Bern, from the novel entitled, "The Master of Man," by Sir Hall Caine, and was Victor Seastrom's first production under a contract the Swedish director signed with the Goldwyn studios.

The entire story is set on the Isle of Man, and deals with the youthful Deemster, or judge of the island, and the trial of the girl whom he had wronged for the murder of her child. The picture is declared one of the most dramatic and emotional ever filmed, and in it, Miss Busch and Mr. Nagel rise to their greatest emotional heights.

The picture was enthusiastically acclaimed by critics and public, and had long runs at large theaters in New York, Los Angeles, Chicago, San Francisco and other of the largest cities in the United States.

You Can't Tell By Looking At a Person What He Reads

When you see the ever popular motion picture magazines and the periodicals that contain questionable fiction occupying a prominent place in the stands of book dealers, you feel like the man who wondered what the world was coming to when he learned that "oogie, oogie wa wa means I want a mama in Eskimo." It's the sad truth, and you may as well learn now that it isn't only the so-called low brow who buy the trashy journals, but bookdealers will raise their eyebrows and say "you'd be surprised" when you ask them what people buy.

They will tell you too that the motion picture magazines are harmless and perhaps the most popular periodicals they sell. This type of reading material is the favorite of young girls "whose friends have told them that they look just like Mary Pickford and of course, can act as well as she can any old day." And not only this type of girl, but many other people who wish to spend an evening reading something light buy the screen pictorials.

LIKE SHEIK STORIES
The journals that contain "snappy stories" are popular with the same class of people who read the sheik stories, and you can say sheik stories because since the original "sheik" made his appearance through the pages of a book, dozens of other authors have made loads of money by introducing his brother, son, cousin or enemy.

Not so long ago young girls read "Three Weeks" surreptitiously, burning the midnight oil to finish it and had trouble in keeping it from the eyes of mothers. Now any modern girl will flaunt "Flaming Youth" on the street car without worrying about what people think.

Thom's bookstore sells most of its movie magazines to young girls, but you can't pin any of the dealers down to saying who buys the magazines, because in this line you can expect the improbable. They will say, though, that college professors as a rule are truly "high brow" and it is to them that the better class of magazines are sold.

READ WESTERN STORIES
It's the "young fellows" who like the stories of the west, especially those contained in many of the popular western weeklies published by eastern concerns, according to Thom's and its the boys who work inside who like to read of wild and rough country, such as the "west" of America is supposed to be like. There are the books of true stories and true bits of life. One publishing house issues 12 different magazines each month and everyone is along the same line. They tell luridly of the pitfalls of life and represented evil at every corner. They are supposed to warn the innocent of the dangers and whether you believe it or not, dealers tell you that intelligent people consider these magazines quite elevating.

BUY ALL KINDS
At Conkey's bookstore they will tell you that there is little difference in the magazines that people buy, or

FLUSH RADIATOR TO REMOVE RUST

"Clean out your radiators before taking your car out in the spring," is the advice of an automobile accessories man to motorists. The reason he gives for this is that rust collects in the radiators as a result of the moisture which gathers if the car is allowed to stand over winter. This rust collects on the cooling system, and the result is that it is harder for the water to cool the engine. The best way to remove the rust is to fill the radiator, run the motor for a few minutes, drain the radiator, and flush it with a hose.

Radio magazines are ever popular with the fans and there are as many books on this subject on the market as there are movie books. Trade journals of any kind have a good market in this town.

DON'T WANT 'FRY' TAKEN FROM LAKE

Seining of fish fry in Lake Winneshiek for the purpose of stocking other lakes and streams in the state is objected to in a petition signed by a number of fishermen in the vicinity, and directed to the state conservation commission.

The petitioners cite that this depletion of the fish population of nearby waters takes away the food supply for the game fish and is a "detriment to local waters." This has long been a practice of the state commission and just as long has been objected to by the Neenah fishermen.

KAUKAUNA MAN ROBBED BY PALS AT MARINETTE

Roy Pomeroy of Kaukauna last week was assaulted and robbed of $20 by two of his companions in Marinette last week, according to his charges. He was found lying in a drunken stupor on a porch of a Marinette home one night. Upon his complaint of having been thrown out of a car on a roadside, police arrested Charles Bennett and Arnold Cashette a few hours later. The men pleaded not guilty to the charges. Pomeroy was himself held on charges of being drunk and disorderly.

YOUR QUESTION AND ITS ANSWER

QUESTION—"Will you please explain how Chiropractic accounts for the cause and cure of disease? Is it confined to diseases of the nervous system?"

ANSWER—Briefly, stated, Chiropractic teaches that disease comes when the organs and tissues are weakened and their resistance lowered by lack of Vital Energy supplied by the brain over the spinal nerves. This nerve energy may become partially shut off by pressure. This pressure can exist only in the spine where the nerves make their exit between two movable bones. When pressure exists the organ supplied by the pinched nerve suffers, and will continue to suffer until the pressure is released. Acting as a body mechanic, the Chiropractor locates the point of pressure and then releases it with a Spinal Adjustment. Experience clearly demonstrates that Chiropractic is not limited, but it is applicable in all kinds of sickness.

TAX SANITY

We have an example of the wisdom of restraint in tax policies in the returns of state income for the year 1923. In the year 1922 income returns for taxation in Wisconsin totaled $69,255,701, while the returns just made covering the year 1923 total nearly double this amount, or $131,436,210. Taxes levied against corporation incomes in 1922 amounted to $3,720,803, while those levied for 1923 totaled $7,516,198, an increase of nearly $4,000,000.

These heavy increases in taxable returns and in taxes paid indicate not only a healthy condition of business throughout Wisconsin, but they illustrate in a forceful manner the fact that anything like reasonable taxation encourages industry and in the end yields more revenue for the state than a policy of excessive taxation, which reduces profit and forces capital and investment out of the state.

In view of this very satisfactory showing on income taxation, it is to be recalled that the last legislature had before it proposals for radical increases in taxation on industry. Had any of these bills been enacted, there is no doubt that many manufacturers would have moved out of Wisconsin and relocated in other states. Not only this, but those that remained would have been placed at a serious disadvantage in their competition with manufacturers in other states subjected to less onerous burdens.

The heavy increase in the amount of income taxes paid is certainly all that the reasonable requirements of this state demand. They reflect a constructive tax policy. The movements of radical politicians to lay on additional taxes for the mere purpose of penalizing industry, and there can be no other purpose, should be abandoned. A little real economy down at Madison will make the raising of additional revenue unnecessary. It would have been a grave mistake as well as a grave injustice to have enacted the tax revision schemes before the last legislature.

JAIL DRUNKEN DRIVERS

The drunken driver is the most serious menace we have today with the exception of the insane driver, of which we have found a few in Chicago. He doesn't need to be completely drunk, just drunk enough so he cannot make a turn correctly, or stop when he should.
The automobile in such hands becomes an instrument of death.

In Chicago we have been giving drunken drivers House of Correction sentences of from 30 to 90 days. But this is not enough. A man who drives while intoxicated should be deprived of his license to operate a car. If you have no such licensing law, your legislature should enact one. I believe he should be deprived of it permanently, a man who will drive a car once while intoxicated will do it again—Judge Harry Olson, Chief Justice of the Chicago Municipal Court.

These views are wholly in accordance with those expressed by the Post-Crescent during its effort of the last year to obtain severer and more effective punishment of drunken automobile drivers. Not only, as Judge Olson says, should the driver be sent to jail, but he should have his license taken away from him and not be permitted to drive. Until the legislature enacts such a law, it will be guilty of connivance in continuing this dangerous evil, and the responsibility will rest upon it equally with the courts for not protecting the public.

It is conclusively proven that fines are not enough to deter drunken driving.
We recommend the observations of this Chicago judge to consideration of our local courts as they approach the season of such violations. Nothing is owed to the drunken driver, he is entitled to no consideration. The duty of the courts and enforcing officers is to protect the public.

That is their sole duty. It should be our policy in Appleton to deal so harshly with drunken drivers that they will be afraid to venture on the streets while intoxicated.
This criminal defiance of public safety can be broken up by jail sentences but never by fines. In addition the courts should have authority to revoke the right to drive; in fact, they should be required to revoke it. A law of this nature should be the next step in giving the added security on our highways that is so greatly needed.

WORKING THROUGH COLLEGE

College boys do not have as much trouble in finding jobs as they used to, in order to earn money to pay their way. This is especially true with regard to students who attend great institutions located in or near large cities, but those who are matriolated in colleges in the smaller towns also have less trouble in obtaining employment. The employment is more agreeable and more lucrative.

New York University reports that it placed last year, through its employment bureau, young men and women in 776 positions. The total income of the students from this work was $601,063. Seventy-four of the positions were for less than $1,000 a year each; seventy-seven at $1,000; 146 at $1,200; 70 at $1,500;
46 at $1,800; 28 at $2,000; 5 at $2,500;
3 at $3,000 and 3 at $6,000. The jobs ranged from "sandwich man" to specialist, and from cashier and private tutor to accountant and department manager.

Corporations and stores and leading clubs and societies need men and women for extra or special services. Thus, it appears that it is not difficult for young persons to, work their way through college. Students who necessarily or voluntarily do extra work are the most serious.
They are industrious and apply themselves intently to their studies. The special work which they do is broadening. The most unpromising students are those who feel that they are obliged neither to work nor to study.

PAYING FOR A DEAD HORSE

Railroad men estimate that it would cost 10 billion dollars to abolish all highway grade crossings in the United States.
This, comments Barron's Weekly, is half the entire original cost of building the railroads. When the roads were built, construction costs were low compared with now. Grade crossings could have been eliminated in thousands of cases by bridging streets and roads above the steel tracks or tunneling them under, at no great increase in cost. But the builders were not sufficiently prophetic in imagination to look into the future and realize that grade crossings would later become a grave traffic problem. Now, at enormous expense, the railroads are gradually eliminating grade crossings. It is like paying for a dead horse.

The big traffic problem in cities today is that streets are too narrow. When the streets were laid out originally no one dreamed that the day would come when they would not be wide enough.
The general measure seems to have been to make roads just wide enough for two wagon-loads of hay to pass each other without going into the ditch. Despite this precedent, many cities continue laying out narrow streets, and even new towns fail to build wide enough highways for steady-ly increasing congestion of traffic, certain to come.

A large portion of human effort is devoted to undoing the mistakes of the past.
This is especially true of individuals.
For instance, the majority of people seeking health in middle age, when they should be sturdy, are the victims of improper living in youth. Ill health as a rule is the payment of a bill that has been piling up for years. In some ways it is a good thing we cannot read the veil and have our futures revealed to us. But, if we could see ahead ten years or more,
most of us would change our habits, methods, goals and purposes—abruptly and decidedly. Most people drift with the current. Only a few inquire carefully of veterans who have made the voyage before, and then steer a course accordingly.
Cities are like individuals in this respect.

In Lancaster, O., a man left $18,000 to the U. S. because he liked the government. The really strange part is he was a farmer.

President of University of Maryland may have his pay cut, perhaps because he makes enough to live on.

Man in Baltimore has been arrested six times by the same cop. Such a habit must be nerve wracking.

Forgetting is a virtue if you are wise in selecting what to forget.

NUTRITION AND TEMPERAMENT

The majority of splinters, grass widows and confirmed widows are kinda thin. If you happen to be one of the majority please remember that it isn't my fault. On the contrary I'm sitting up nights planning and scheming how to cut down the deplorable majority. I'm dealing in dusty medical science and coming to the contemporary literature of medical science in quest of such crumbs of comfort as I can gather for plumping out the thin ones. I prefer to see 'em fat and happy.

It may seem a paradox, yet it is true that a fat person who is cheerful about it can get thin as quickly as a thin person of happy disposition can get fat. Fat folks are proverbially good natured, but not invariably so. In reality, indeed, fat gloves are necessary for handling some stouts, for they are techy and peckish, sometimes to the point of being splenic. The ill humored fat ones generally stay fat in spite of attempts to reduce, for their disposition interferes with the carrying out of any proper reduction regimen. And there's another proverb which must be revised. It might go like this: Laugh and grow fat if you're thin, but otherwise vice versa.

In suggesting methods or means for gaining weight I should warn those who are overweight that it is not advisable or even safe to assume that the reversal of something which tends to favor gain of weight will bring about reduction. For example the drinking of a glassful or two of coffee after meals will help, but the fat person who is drinking himself water on the theory that water increases weight will be disappointed if not startled by the effect of his mistake.

In a general way, ignoring certain exceptions, the liberal drinking of water helps a thin person to gain weight and likewise helps a fat person to reduce when on a reduction regimen. The expansion of this is that the cold water improves the appetite when you are thirsting, stimulates the secretion of more gastric juice, and therefore enables the individual with a poor digestive capacity to take more food and digest it. On the other hand, the overweight individual generally has no fault or frailty of digestion though plenty of trouble from the overload of food he habitually takes, and a liberal use of drinking water helps him to eliminate through skin, lungs, intestines and kidneys some of the excessive ash he must dispose of.

Healthy posture has a great deal to do with many cases of exiguity—abnormal thinness. There is a weak posture known as fatigue posture which goes with impaired nutrition and underweight particularly in young persons; and a vigorous posture which goes with good nutrition. I do not assert that the faulty posture is wholly responsible for fatigue posture helps the thin person to gain flesh.
And that will be the next story.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.

There Are Millions of 'Em.
Is there such a thing as a tapeworm? I am 17, weigh 130 pounds, 64 inches tall, engaged actively in athletics. But why do I eat so much? I am always hungry, it seems and half an hour after a hearty meal I can eat again. I don't want to get fat—or at least not fatter. Most of my weight is muscle. Have I tapeworms? Should I eat so much? (Allen)

Answer—There are millions of tapeworms, and a lot of us in perfect health and with just normal appetites are harboring them. But your big appetite is the natural thing for a girl of your age and activity. Don't overindulge in concentrated sweets, but otherwise forget the tapeworm business and keep on as you are. Use fresh fruit instead of candy and limonade.

Permanently Removing Hair.
Please suggest the simplest and best method for permanently removing hair (Mrs. S. M.)

Answer—I find a razor fairly good—it seems to me I am permanently removing hair with it. I recommend a small safety razor such as the Gillette dealers supply for ladies. No known chemical or other depilatory will remove hair better than such a safety razor. Electrolysis, for the face, and X-ray for other areas, are the only means of destroying hair. Consult competent skin specialists about such treatment.

LOOKING BACKWARD

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Thursday, March 30, 1899.

H. M. Louis was at Oshkosh on business.
Mrs. Joseph Spitz was visiting friends at Chicago.
Joseph Koffand, Jr., and Joseph Loeb returned home from Madison, where they were attending the state university.

Miss Carrie Lucas returned to Green Bay after an extended visit with Appleton friends.

Good sleighing was reported on country highways
but very little snow was left in the city.

J. V. Bunn of Oshkosh was in Appleton with a driving horse that attracted a great deal of attention.

George H. Packard was surprised by thirty friends the previous evening, who gathered at his home on Commercial-st.

Announcement was received of the death of Jay Morrill who was killed while in action in the Philippines.

Amelia Krueger, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W.
L. Krueger, died Thursday at her home in the Sixth ward.

William Schroeder of the town of Freedom was kicked in the head by a horse and was in a precarious condition.

New officers of the Sunday Evening club were:
President, Frank Taylor; vice president, G. E. Buchanan; secretary, W. J. Teich; treasurer, W. S.
Wescott; ushers, W. J. Smith, George Ashman, Edward Thebe, A. B. Welsensborn, James Sherry, A.
J. Simpich, Frank Burhans, L. F. Bushey, M. H.
Croswell, J. C. Caperson, W. H. Dean and W. O.
Clark.

Dealers received notice that the price of stoves was to advance 10 per cent April 1.

TEN YEARS AGO

Thursday, March 26, 1911.

A. W. West of Sheboygan was in Appleton on business.

L. B. Poore of Madison called on friends here the day previous.

A meeting of St. Joseph Study club was held at St. Joseph hall.

Prof. F. Wesley Orr of Lawrence school of expression was to give his interpretation of the "Merchant of Venice" at Peabody hall on April 3.

The indications were that Appleton's new filter plant was to be given a severe test during the summer because of the low stage of water in the river.

Florida Exdai, 2-year old colt owned by William Laux was sold to Luther Lindauer for $320.
"A Village with a Future" was the title of a 32-page booklet issued by the Kimberly-Clark company.

Herbert Pond, son of the late O. W. Pond, who was injured in a runaway accident at Plymouth, died the day previous in a Sheboygan hospital.
Outagamie County Federation of Catholic societies was met at Kimberly on March 23.

---that's all there is to life

POOR GUY

Poor Jim has reached
His heavenly bower;
He's laid aside
This mortal load;
He drove at six-Ty miles an hour,
Along a bump-Y country road.

—Hank

Almost time for the Saturday and Sunday accidents to accumulate. After we have had our first few doses we shall be reminded of that ancient maxim, "It's a great life if you don't week-end"

Miss Lizzie Ford was an Illinois bride a few days ago. We'll bet she can hardly wait for her tin wedding to roll around.

Now Altogether

The lecturer was waxing eloquent:
"He drove straight to his goal," he cried fervently. "He looked neither to the right nor to the left, but pressed forward, moved by a definite purpose. Neither friend nor foe could delay him nor turn him from his course. All who crossed his path did so at their own peril. What would you call such a man?"
The audience rose to its feet and shouted in one accord:
"A truck driver"

Legally, a pedestrian has the right of way. But this is one case where it is much safer to violate the law.

This city political race is much like an automobile race. There is apt to be more than one flat tire before they get through. We have our honest money banked on one aspirant. If he loses, we shall start another. Black Soul scandal suit against him for losing on purpose.

Some men are born dishonest, some acquire dishonesty and some will tell you how many miles their car will make on a gallon of gasoline.

NOTHING WOULD FAZE THIS GUY

A hardened motorist ran down a jay walker. "Hey," he shouted,
"While you are, under there take a look at my brake rods."

Isn't it strange that you never hear of church members complaining about what little parking space there is near the church?

The cub reporter was sent out the other day to find what new automobile accessories are on the market.
He reported the following:
Round Shoulders
Foot Cramp
Arm Curvature
Callous Hips
Cross Eyes

For years we had an ambition to have enough money so as to run a private station. But when this Gov.
McMaster Joller spoiled things, who the heck wants a filling station?

World's News
Told In Brief, Simple Style

BY CHARLES P. STEWART

Washington.—Prohibition violations have figured, from some angle or other, in every one of the investigation in progress in Washington.
Now a movement has been started in the House of Representatives to start a NEW investigation to go into the dry law question, to get together all this material that other committees have stumbled on accidentally and decide finally, if possible, what ought to be done about the Volstead Act—whether there's any way of enforce-ing it or, if changing it is the only way it can be made to work.

CONGRESS' RIGHTS

In the attempt by Martin Littleton, the big New York lawyer, to keep the oil investigators from questioning Harry Sinclair, a plan is seen to stop for all time, such congressional inquiries as are going on now. Littleton says Congress' business, under the constitution, is to make laws, not to try cases, like a court.

It omits this point never has been raised before, but he thinks it ought to have been, and he believes he can make his objection stick. If he succeeds, he won't prevent court trials of cases like Teapot Dome, but he doesn't mind court trials so much, because court rules would bar a lot of the questions the congressional committees ask.

Army and navy aviators really expect SOME, at least, of the four millary flyers who have started around the world, to finish the trip on schedule time. It's true that the journey could be made faster by train and boat, but the experts predict, as more flights are made. The record will be cut down and down and down.

PRETTY TICKLISH

Naval officers speak of the revolution in Honduras, where United States marines are ashore, as a pretty ticklish affair. Not but what they're confident of the devil dogs' ability to take care of themselves, but with a crowd of local distributors, hot can legions and consuls, and even on the marines, they say it's hard to tell what kind of a situation may develop. It might even mean an American occupation for a good while.

SAME OLD THING

Trouble has started again in Ireland, just as everybody supposed things were quiet there for good. It began with an army mutiny, and although this was settled after a fashion by giving the mutineers their own way, there's been an aftermath of guerrilla warfare ever since—not mere outlaws but regular battles, with machine guns and many other modern improvements.

CHINA VERSUS RUSSIA

Soviet Russia wasn't satisfied with her official relations with China. That is, Chinese weren't giving Russians all the concessions they wanted. So Russia fixed up a new set of rules and asked China to sign on the dot.
The Chinese government three days ago refused to sign. It was an ultimatum to attend to it. It was an ultimatum never occurred to him she'd balk.
Without hesitating a minute she ordered him out of the country, causing what diplomats call "a strained situation."

If we could stand a

Q For whom was Bolling Field named? R. E.

A This aviation field was named for Colonel Raynal C. Bolling, who was the first American officer of high rank killed during the World War.
He died on the field of battle, March 26, 1918, as a result of a hand-to-hand pistol duel with overwhelming numbers of the enemy.

Q How many farmers have radio sets? G. E. K.

A It is possible to get an estimate only. A questionnaire was sent out, to which replies were received from 780 counties. These figures were averaged, and that figure projected for all of the 2,850 agricultural counties in the country. This gave an estimate of 145,000 sets on farms at the time of the survey, Sep. 1, 1923.

Q What do the words "ahoy" and
"avast" mean? D. D. S.

A "Ahoy" is merely an interjection used in hailing ships. "Avast!"
is also a nautical term which means to cease, stop, or wait.

Q Where is San Marino? W. V. L.

A San Marino is situated in the Ap-penines near Rimini, in the heart of Italy, and claims to be the oldest state in Europe, having been founded in the fourth century. Its present freedom dates from 1631.

Weight Lost
Every Minute

(From Popular Science Monthly)

Five minutes from now, unless you eat or drink in the meantime, you will weigh less than you do now. In fact you will weigh less a minute from now, because the body is constantly losing weight by evaporation or by loss of carbon in breathing.
Powerful but exceedingly delicate scales, devised recently by the Carnegie Institution, are now being used to measure the sum of these losses, and numerous interesting facts have been revealed by the scales. The more clothing a person wears, the more rapidly he loses weight, because of increased perspiration. A football player was shown to lose 14 pounds in a game lasting 70 minutes. A marathon runner lost 8½ pounds in a three hour race.

Ordinary men, performing no exertion, but merely sitting in a chair suspended from the scales, have lost weights so rapidly that small weights had to be added constantly to keep the balance even.

Taft Pupil Opens Studio In Appleton

Artist from Recreation Training School Here to Paint Scenery

Appleton people who have been yearning for a chance to do something with their artistic talents will have plenty of opportunity for the next three weeks. Miss Louise Guernsey, well known artist and sculptor, student of Lorado Taft, will turn Appleton Womens club Playhouse into a studio beginning Monday morning. She will give supervision in scenery painting just as she gives it at the Recreation Training school of Chicago.

Miss Guernsey will have charge of the painting of the scenery and sets for "The Tale of a Fox." Miss Almira Baker has arranged to have her entire class from Lawrence Conservatory of Music work with Miss Guernsey and Miss Baker will take the names of any others who wish to take advantage of working with the artist. Miss Guernsey has asked that those who wish to work arrange for three hour periods and come at least twice during the time that she is here. They are welcome to come every day if they choose. It is said that Appleton people have a chance to work with an artist of so great repute. Those who wish to avail themselves of this opportunity may telephone the clubhouse if they cannot reach Miss Baker. Miss Guernsey is especially anxious to have a crew to start with early Monday morning.

Lind Concert Popular All Over World

The universal approval of this new venture of Frieda Hempel, her Jenny Lind concert, has swept the prima donna off her feet. The enthusiasm with which Europe and America has met the revival of Jenny Lind's memory is far greater than Mme. Hempel dreamed it would be. She will present a Jenny Lind concert in Appleton at Lawrence Memorial chapel on Friday evening.

London, New York, Chicago and Boston have stamped their seal of approval on the Jenny Lind concert and other cities have found that concert the outstanding music event of many seasons. Mme. Hempel's personal and artistic popularity has had a great appeal all over the world.

In the concert on Friday evening, Mme. Hempel will be assisted by Conrad Bos at the piano and Louis Fritz at the flute. All three will be dressed in the costume of the time of Jenny Lind's great popularity. Mme. Hempel's gown is an exact copy of one of Jenny Lind's gowns.

THIS WOMAN RELIEVED FROM SUFFERING

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. A Remarkable Story

Dover, Del.—"I wish every woman would take your wonderful medicine as it has done so much good to me. I had cramps and faint spells and very bad pains. One day I was over to my neighbor's house and she told me I ought to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. So I went to the store on my way home and got a bottle, and took the first dose before supper. I have been taking it ever since, and you can hardly believe how different I feel. I had just wanted to lie in bed all the time, and when I started to brush up I would give out in about ten minutes. So you know how badly I felt. I used to go to bed at eight and get up at seven, still tired. Now I can work all day and stay up until eleven, and feel all right all the time. My housework is all I do in summer, but in winter I work in a factory. I have told a good many of my friends, and I have had three come to me and tell me they wouldn't do without the Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. SAMUEL MURPHY, 219 Cecil St., Dover, Delaware.

Women Help New College With Money

About $35 dollars was collected at the thank offering taken at the all-day session of Womens association of First Congregational church Wednesday. This amount is to be given to Northland college, a Congregational institution located at Ashland. The women also had a shower for the new girls dormitory and collected about 35 sheets and 55 pillow cases, which are to be sent with the money.

The box is to be left open for a short time so that those who wish to give sheets and pillow cases may do so. At a short business session the women decided to give a bazaar on April 9, featuring a cafeteria dinner and supper.

Mrs. G. E. Buchanan was chairman of the committee which served the luncheon at noon. A missionary program presenting the home missionary work and work at Northland college was given in the afternoon.

CLUB MEETINGS

The Nameless club met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. W. S. Taylor, 518 Center-st. Prizes at bridge were won by Mrs. George Ewon and Mrs. R. C. Brauning. Mrs. Brauning will entertain the club at its next meeting.

The Bunco club met Wednesday night with Mrs. E. B. Rachow, 1144 Elsie-st. Prizes were won by Mrs. L. J. Kaufman, Mrs. George Auers and Mrs. August Haferbecker. The club will have its next meeting with Mrs. August Haferbecker, Union-st.

Over the Tea Cups club will meet with Mrs. Dan W. Stansbury, 4 Alton-st. at 2:45 Friday afternoon. A program has been arranged.

Remodels Store Harry Resman, proprietor of a men's furnishing store at 699 Appleton-st., has completed remodeling of his place of business. Included in the improvement is a new linoleum floor and installation of suit racks of a modern type.

WEDDINGS

Charles Barkholtz, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Barkholtz, rural route 5, and Esther Hittke of Ogdensburg, were married at the home of the bridegroom at 2:30 Wednesday afternoon by the Rev. Theodore Marth. Theodore and Martha Krause attended the couple. Mr. and Mrs. Barkholtz will make their home in Appleton.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

A license to marry has been applied for in the county clerk's office by Arthur Fritz and Dorothy Finger, both of New London.

Mission Club Gives Supper In Clubhouse

The Womens Missionary society of Trinity English Lutheran church has invited the entire congregation to attend its supper and program in Appleton Womens club Friday night when the society observes its fifth anniversary of organization. The supper is to be given at 6 o'clock, followed by program that is being prepared under the supervision of Mrs. F. L. Schreckenberg. Mrs. Albert C. Roehl and Mrs. John Lueders have charge of the supper.

Chicago Man Gives Folk Dance Party

Any one who is interested in taking part or in seeing others take part in folk dances is invited to the folk dance party at the Playhouse of Appleton Womens club at 7:30 Saturday evening. Viggo Borbjerg, Danish gymnasium instructor of the Recreation Training school of Chicago, will be in Appleton to rehearse several parts of "The Tale of the Fox" and has consented to take charge of a regular folk dance party.

Mr. "Bo," as he is known to the students of the schools, is an internationally famous gymnasium instructor. He has done some excellent work in folk dance interpretation and his folk dance parties are great fun.

WERNER SUGGESTS "HARMONY BOARD" AS C. C. BRANCH

Circuit Judge Believes Grievance Committee Will Promote Better Relations

Sometimes differences arise between people of the community and those on both sides are so "hot up" that harmony is entirely out of the question. Perhaps neither would care to take matter into court, however, for the whole matter goes down in black and white and might bob up with an unpleasant result at some later time when both are the warmest of friends.

But who can they tell their troubles to? Were it possible for the participants to go before some calm person or body where they could blow enough steam so their reservoir of local and nervous energy would be emptied sufficiently so they could reason and talk sensibly. It would be possible to send them away as friends again.

The need of the community has inspired Judge Edgar V. Werner of the circuit court to suggest to the chamber of commerce that a public committee on grievances and remedies be formed. The chamber looks favorably on the idea and will begin a study of its organization and possibilities as soon as annual election in April has taken place.

LIMIT POWERS. Judge Werner believes the court has its proper sphere in the community and there ought to be some place where minor differences can be adjusted, including inequitable practices of city, county or state governments.

The powers of the committee are to be limited to investigations of grievances and advising remedies not requiring judicial determination or arbitration between the parties or between a class, according to the outline submitted by the judge. Its intent and purpose shall be to create harmony between members of the chamber of commerce and all other citizens of the community. Its work is to extend to any subject pertaining to inefficiency or to those who are in need of it. A prominent druggist says: "Take for example Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, a preparation I have sold for many years and never hesitate to recommend it, for in almost every case it shows excellent results, as many of my customers testify. No other kidney remedy has so large a sale."

According to sworn statements and verified testimony of thousands who have used the preparation, the success of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is due to the fact, so many people claim, that it fulfills almost every wish in overcoming kidney, liver and bladder ailments, corrects urinary troubles and neutralizes the uric acid which causes rheumatism.

You may receive a sample bottle of Swamp-Root by Parcel Post. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., and enclose ten cents; also mention this paper. Large and medium size bottles for sale at all drug stores. adv

Fellowship of Prayer

Daily Lenten Bible reading and meditation prepared for Commission on Evangelism of Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America.

THURSDAY
Entering the Kingdom

Read Mt. 7:13-23. Text: 7:21. Not everyone that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father who is in heaven.

"Salvation means being saved from a daily life of growing selfishness to a daily life of growing unselfishness and its inevitable enlargement of life. It involves a deepening acquaintance with God, to know whom is eternal life."

MEDITATION: "Doing the will of the Father"—there is nothing higher in heaven or in earth than to be sharers of the divine will. When one is committed wholeheartedly to the great enterprise of making God's will supreme, he has united his life with the ongoing life of God, which union will continue through the long reaches of the life to come.

PERSONAL QUESTION: Have I the courage of high profession knowing that it means making good or acknowledging hypocrisy?

PRAYER: Eternal God, help us to do some service for thee today. Let our daily work bring blessings to others. May we be at one with thee in the deepest places of our lives. May thy purpose may be our ideals. May we begin this day with a close feeling of the infinite and continue with an abiding sense of the eternal. In Christ's name. Amen.

Old Concrete Sewer Still In Good Shape

Tapping of a concrete sewer on Lawrence recently revealed that the old sewer, although installed as long as 25 years ago, is still in excellent condition. The tapping occurred on the Lawrence sewer between Hancock and Winnebago-st on the Northwest-ern rail road tracks. The work was done by Frank Baritz in order to provide an extension for the local sewer company's new office, and the city engineering department made an investigation in the condition of the sewer. It is a 21-inch sewer and was built in 1889 by the late John Dettman. Concrete sewers were among the first built, but vitrified tile sewers have been replacing them, especially in the smaller sizes.

BROCKHAUS WILL SPEAK AT C. E. INSTITUTE

Herman Brockhaus will take the place of John Trautmann on the Christian Endeavor institute program of Appleton and Neenah Evangelical church leagues at Neenah Sunday afternoon and evening. Mr. Trautmann is unable to be present.

Mr. Brockhaus will speak on "Our Pledge—As It Relates to Others." A series of talks will be given on Christian Endeavor work. A musical program will be given in the evening, in which Polzin string orchestra of Appleton will take part.

If You Need a Medicine You Should Have the Best

Have you ever stopped to reason why it is that so many products that are extensively advertised all at once drop out of sight and are soon forgotten? The reason is plain—the article did not fulfill the promises of the manufacturer. This applies more particularly to a medicine. A medicinal preparation that has real curative value almost sells itself, as like an endless chain system the remedy is recommended by those who have been benefited, to those who are in need of it.

A prominent druggist says: "Take for example Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, a preparation I have sold for many years and never hesitate to recommend it, for in almost every case it shows excellent results, as many of my customers testify. No other kidney remedy has so large a sale."

According to sworn statements and verified testimony of thousands who have used the preparation, the success of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is due to the fact, so many people claim, that it fulfills almost every wish in overcoming kidney, liver and bladder ailments, corrects urinary troubles and neutralizes the uric acid which causes rheumatism.

You may receive a sample bottle of Swamp-Root by Parcel Post. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., and enclose ten cents; also mention this paper. Large and medium size bottles for sale at all drug stores. adv

SEEK COOPERATION FOR OSHKOSH CELEBRATION

Appleton, Neenah, Menasha and Fond du Lac will be asked to cooperate with Oshkosh in the homecoming celebration to be held in Oshkosh from June 30 to July 5 of this year.

July 3, 4 and 5 will be the three big days of the celebration, but it is planned to make the whole week a homecoming week. It is estimated that the total expense of the entertainment will be $25,000.

The week's activities will center about the regatta and races of the Mississippi Power Boat Club. About 40 or 50 high powered speed boats will be entered. A grandstand will be built on the shore of Lake Winnebago to accommodate the crowds.

Logging Season Ends

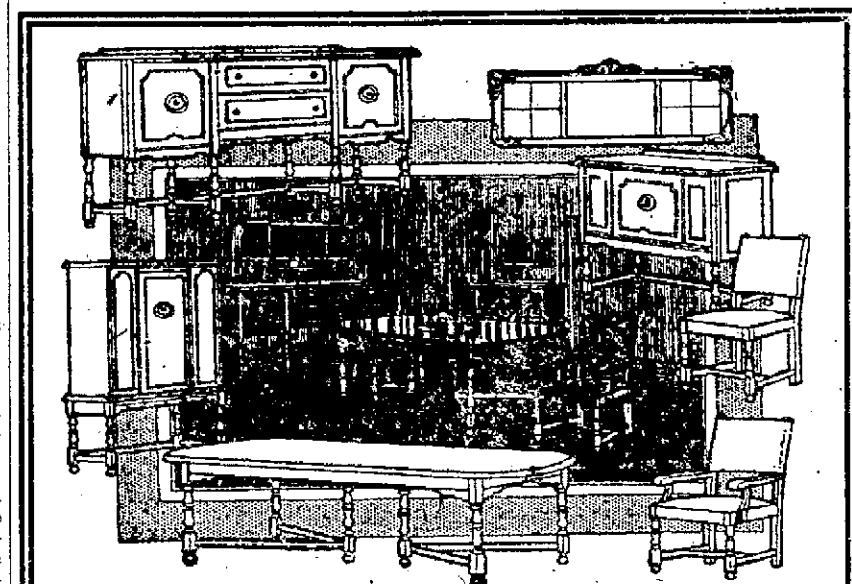

Lumberjacks returning from the northern woods claim most of the logging operations have ceased owing to the absence of snow and that the camps are breaking up. Although the season has been short, the cut of logs is nearly up to the average, they claim.

Big Loads Of Pulpwood Come Into Fox Valley

The rush of pulpwood to Fox river mills continues and no letup is anticipated until the latter part of next month. The receipts of wood for the months of February and March exceed those of previous years. Most of the wood delivered in Appleton has been consigned to the Interlake Pulp & Paper company whose yards are stocked up as they have not been for some time. The other principal points of delivery are Combined Locks and Kaukauna.

"Price Class" the mysterious stranger in the motor industry

Does a difference in price indicate a difference in quality? Why is one car priced 25% to 50% higher than another of the same quality? The 4 questions that a buyer should ask when considering any car.

HERE are facts based on world's engineering authority. If you have any intention of buying an automobile, you are urged to read them.

No "Price-Class"

There are only two kinds of automobiles today. Economically produced cars which give you more for your money. And cars which are not, and give you less.

Price does not indicate intrinsic worth. But an individual maker's cost of production.

Hence two cars may show a price difference of $400 to $1,200 and more. And be of the same quality.

The difference in price simply shows that it cost one maker more to make this car than the other. Judging value on price, this is folly. Price class is a myth.

Where the Difference Comes in Studebaker, producing 150,000 cars yearly, has reduced engineering cost to $3.33 per car.

This is based on a total engineering cost of $500,000 a year, which is the least on which any manufacturer can maintain an efficient engineering department.

Thus a manufacturer producing but 20,000 cars a year must add $25 per car for engineering, or eight times as much as Studebaker.

Other fixed overheads have been reduced proportionately. And these influence Studebaker prices.

A set of body dies costs $100,000. It will produce many thousand sets of body stampings, each one as perfect as though there were only a dozen made.

By building 50,000 bodies from a single set of dies, Studebaker reduces the die cost per body to only $2.00.

The average small manufacturer whose volume will enable him to build only 5,000 bodies from a set of dies in the same time in which Studebaker builds 50,000 has to charge each body $20 for die cost. The difference of $18 is in the price but not in the body. The customer pays it but he gets nothing tangible for it. It is one of the penalties of uneconomical manufacture.

Thus a car priced at $1,200 to $1,400 can be sold as low as $1045 when produced economically in quantity.

Why Studebaker excels the world in body building

For 72 years Studebaker has been a builder of quality vehicles.

This historical tradition has been inbred in generation after generation of coach-makers. And the Indiana city of South Bend is known as a world-Mecca of artisans of this craft.

In the modern $10,000,000 Studebaker body plants, there are sons and fathers and grandfathers working side by side. Their religion is fine coach building. And this is reflected in their work.

As fine body builders, Studebaker stands supreme. No other maker has the experience of Studebaker. No other the Studebaker traditions to inspire him.

Such a car is the Studebaker Light-Six Touring Car, at $1045. A clear difference of between $155 to $355.

The uneconomical manufacturer is not profiting here. He is unfortunately situated, that is all.

Equalled Only by Costliest Foreign and American Makes

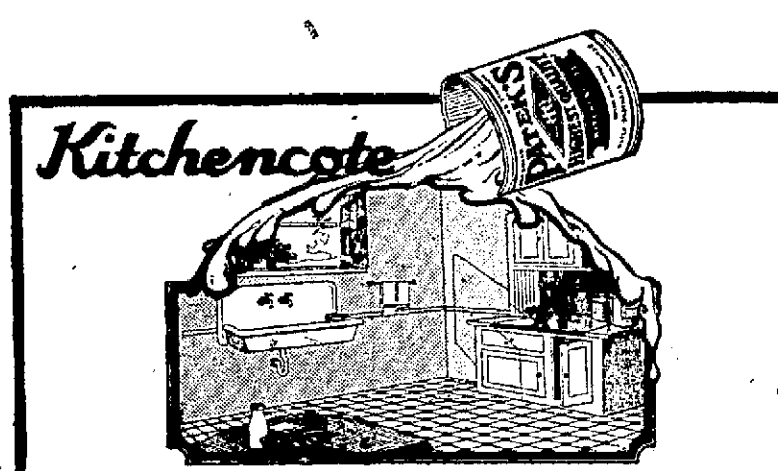

All Studebaker models are equipped with Timken bearings. There are few cars in America, regardless of price, which equal ours on this point. In our Light-Six, for instance, we put more Timken bearings than are used in any competitive car, within $1,500 of its price.

ings than are used in any competitive car, within $1,500 of its price.

We subject Studebaker cars to 30,000 inspections. That requires 1,200 men. All told over 70,000 hand and machine operations are performed in the manufacture of a Studebaker car. In so many operations, though each one is small, there is great opportunity for economy and savings. 15% premium is paid on many steels to insure Studebaker specifications instead of "commercial run" used in cars many times Studebaker price.

No finer car can be built than the Studebaker of today. Only famous foreign cars and the most costly of American cars, compare.

See a Studebaker— Then Decide

Buy no car until you've seen a Studebaker. Go over it, point for point. Consult any unbiased expert. Ask your banker. And you will own a Studebaker.

Get an Answer to These 4 Questions Before Buying Any Car

1—Is this an assembled car? Or "partly" assembled. Insist on this answer. Assembled cars pay a profit to from 75 to 100 parts makers alone.

2—What sort of bearings? Studebakers are Timken-equipped. Everlasting smoothness and quiet performance result.

3—How many cars a year does this maker produce? Small productions mean either a higher price or cheaper car.

4—What sort of upholstery? Studebaker closed models are done in Chase Mohair, the finest material for this purpose known. Open models are upholstered in genuine leather.

FLYING BULLETS TELL OF BATTLE ON OCEAN'S RUM ROW

Navy Resorts To Big Guns
When Liquor Smugglers
Attempt To Flee

(Copyright, 1924, NEA Service, Inc.)
On Board U. S. S. Seneca, 10 Miles South of Long Beach, N. Y.—“Begin Fire!”

The calm, even voice of Captain F. F. Roach rose above the crackle of rifle fire. It was the command that marked the opening of another thrilling chapter in the Battle of Rum Row, a battle in which Captain Roach of the coast guard has been the nemesis of rum runners.

“WHAM!”
The loud roar of the 4-inch cannon jarred the bridge upon which I stood beside the captain.

“Cease Fire!”
The same calm, even voice rang out at my side.

Even as he spoke, he watched the flight of the huge projectile.

A wall of water hid the fleeing motor boat. Close upon the sight of that towering veil of water hurled into the air by the explosion of the shell, came its dull reverberation.

The boat went on.
“Resume Firing!”
The measured voice of Captain Roach again sounded. The crack of rifles still split the air with whip-like reports.

“WHAM!”
Again the big gun spoke.
Fair in the path of the speeding motor boat rose a tower of water. Again the dull reverberation.

“Cease Fire!”
The alert gun crew, rapidly loading for another shot, stood at ready. A strange quiet seemed to descend. Only the sound of the Seneca's engines turning over with forced draft broke the stillness.

The rifles had ceased their racket. The fleeing boat had got beyond their range.

The sturdy figure of the short, stocky commander watched through his field glasses the course of events on the motor boat.

She dodged and ducked. She sped from side to side. She was keeping such vessels of the rum fleet as she encountered between her and her grim pursuer.

She took the course that led into the path of the setting sun in order that the eyes of the runners might be dazzled.

But she did not halt.
“Resume Fire!”

Once more that calm, even voice rang out as inexorable as fate.

“WHAM!”
The 4-inch gun again roared its command to halt.

High over the head of the fleeing boat, a puff of fleecy white appeared where an instant before had been but blue sky.

To the front of the target spurts of water flew high in the air.

To right—to left—to stern—the same miniature geysers sprang into being.

“Cease Firing!”
Again the fugitives were given a lease of life.

Slowly the motor boat came about. Like some shy thing of the wild she timidly approached the Seneca bobbing up and down on the waters of the Atlantic.

Silently, the only sound the put-put of her motor, she drew ahead.

“Come alongside aft and come aboard.”

A brief “Aye, Aye, Sir!” came from one of the bedraggled figures crouched in the cockpit of the motor boat.

Blue-clad sailors lined the rail of the Seneca. The sun glistened on the rifles in their hands. Around their waists, khaki ammunition belts contrasted strangely with the unfamiliar blue. Six grins creased their lips.

Two dirty, unshaven, unkempt figures climbed over the stern of the Seneca. One of them had to be helped. His knees would hardly support his weight.

The other, still defiant, and grinning, remarked:

“Rotten shootin’. Youse guys couldn’t hit the side of a barn. Say, whose got a pill?”

Uncle Sam had collared two more illicit visitors to the rum fleet.

They had been fortunate enough to witness at first hand the work of the guardians of sea coast adjacent to New York.

Drab, official reports convey little of the inside of rum chasing.

The Seneca had been patrolling the waters just inside the 12-mile limit.

She had encountered 10 members of the rum fleet.

But in the absence of any official sanction of the new 12-mile treaty with Great Britain, the Seneca had merely passed by checking up on the positions of the various boats.

EVEN STONE AGE WOMEN HANDLED MEAN LIP STICK

Remains Of Paint And Rouge Discovered In Hunt For “First Man”

By Associated Press
London—Much speculation as to the age of man has arisen as a result of the recent discoveries of fossil human skulls in South America, Patagonia and the island of Jersey.

The estimates as to the antiquity of the human race range all the way from ten thousand to a million years. Dr. Wolf's reported discovery in Patagonia of a fossilized human skull of the tertiary period, however, may nullify all previous scientific calculations on this subject, and the public is now getting a little chary about accepting even scientists' estimates regarding the date of the origin of the human race.

Ever since the unearthing of the ashes of King Tutankhamun, who, in the view of anthropologists, is to be reckoned only as an “infant,” as the age of man goes, startling discoveries have been made all over the world which upset all well-established anthropological foundations.

“MARE'S NEST”
Dr. A. Smith Woodward, director of the geological department of the British Museum, makes some interesting comments on the latest discoveries in skulls and bones. “For a moment,” says he, “the public seemed to assume that we had found at last the first man who lived on earth. I fear, however, that these conjectures are as baseless as they are interesting. Since the skull from Jersey is said to have been found near a neolithic burial chamber, it is probably much nearer, but period than any of the skulls of fossil men which show resemblance to their ape like ancestors. And since the specimen from Patagonia comes from a country which has furnished more ‘mare's nests’ in the study of prehistoric and ancestral man than any other part of the world, it will not excite interest among anthropologists until some geologist admittedly skilled in such matters has satisfied himself that this is a true fossil, definitely associated with the remains of extinct animals.”

Who, then, Dr. Woodward asks was the first man on earth? “To be strictly accurate,” he replies, “we have not yet found him, although we have some reason to think we know where to look. In the dim borderland of time which separates man from monkey there roamed, somewhere in Central Asia, a form of large-brained ape destined to be the precursor of man. It is impossible to fix a date for his appearance, but we know that when he came into being the Himalayan Mountains had not yet reared their peaks.”

SEARCH FOR FIRST MAN
The eminent British geologist says nothing had yet been discovered respecting the habits and life of these apes. A party of American naturalists is now searching for them in promising localities in Mongolia, he adds.

It was in the Neanderthal, near Düsseldorf, Germany, writes Dr. Woodward, that the remains of the earliest man of whom anything is really known were discovered. “Compared with our knowledge of his ancestors,” he says, “he is an intimate acquaintance. But it is impossible to assign him a date in years. Swedish geologists reckon his age as about 12,000 years.”

“Neanderthal man,” continues the British scientist, “was definitely a man. He lived in caves from which he sallied forth to hunt the animals, such as mammoth, rhinoceros, reindeer and bison, which then roamed over Europe. We have found his tools, flint and bone, and we have found even the bone pins with which possibly the early women fastened the rough skins which served them for petticoats. We have also found remains of paint and rouge, which seem to signify the dawn of vanity.”

“Most remarkable of all, we have ascertained that these early human beings believed in a future life, an obvious advance in thought. They buried their dead, and with the dead we have found both stone implements and the bones of animals which had been buried when still covered with flesh, and were doubtless intended to be used for food in case the departed spirits should suffer the pangs of hunger.”

FORCED TO WALK WHEN STREET CAR LEFT RAILS

Attorney Fred V. Heinemann and Levy Gettlinger had to test their walking prowess Tuesday after figuring in a street car breakdown. The two men were at state reformatory at Green Bay Tuesday and boarded a street car back to DePere. The car was derailed, when a short distance away from the institution and with no immediate relief in sight the two men decided to walk to DePere. The distance was about two and a half miles. Both men were shaken up when the street car left the rails but were not injured.

acquaintance. But it is impossible to assign him a date in years. Swedish geologists reckon his age as about 12,000 years.

“Neanderthal man,” continues the British scientist, “was definitely a man. He lived in caves from which he sallied forth to hunt the animals, such as mammoth, rhinoceros, reindeer and bison, which then roamed over Europe. We have found his tools, flint and bone, and we have found even the bone pins with which possibly the early women fastened the rough skins which served them for petticoats. We have also found remains of paint and rouge, which seem to signify the dawn of vanity.”

“Most remarkable of all, we have ascertained that these early human beings believed in a future life, an obvious advance in thought. They buried their dead, and with the dead we have found both stone implements and the bones of animals which had been buried when still covered with flesh, and were

LETTER FROM ALICE HAMILTON TO HER SISTER, MRS. LESLIE PRESCOTT

I must say, my dear sister, that you have succeeded in making a mess of things generally. After that terrible cable, which pretty nearly put me to bed and which I had to show to Karl, he was nearly beside himself. Nothing would satisfy him except to cable you and also his lawyers.

What I wanted him to do was simply to cable you to send me the pearls and let 'em go at that, but he seems to have some sort of sentimental idea about it. Did you ever realize what sentimental bores men are? They have no practical common sense where their emotions are concerned. He said he would not feel right if you did not have the gems after all the years he had been collecting them for you.

I told Karl that if he left you alone you would get out of the middle some way, and when he looked dubious I ask him if he did not think you were a woman of any resource at all. He answered, "Not in circumstances of this kind."

For a moment I had a nasty feeling that he had not only thought I would prove perfectly adequate to cope with the matter, but he also thought it was no credit to me to be efficient in that direction. That is another silly man's notion.

The pearls are real, my dear, but of course this is not news to you. Karl has been collecting them for you ever since he can remember. Do you want me to believe you never heard of that? Of course Karl told me that you didn't know a word about it, but I didn't believe him at all. He could not have kept such a thing from me. I can tell you. I would have wormed it out of him. And then when you finally got them into your hands, it seems to me you were stupider than I thought. A blind woman would have known the moment she felt those glorious globules that they were priceless pearls. You cannot find fault with me for thinking you surely were not as stupid as all that.

What I thought, Leslie, was that all that silly stuff as to how I came by the pearls was a little fiction between you and me. I concluded that being a woman you knew about pearls, and whether you married Karl or not you would want them. So I made it easy for Karl to give them to you, and for you to accept them. It seems I am getting little thanks for this from either of you. Of course I know men are the stupidest animals on earth. But surely you can forgive me for thinking that my own sex has a little grain of sense, particularly when it is represented by my sister.

I told Karl I was going to tell you to send them back and he said if I did he would never speak to me again. Consequently you must remember that I didn't do it.

I don't see anything else for you to do now under the circumstances except to go and see his lawyers and take their advice on the subject. Of course you can't tell John. He never would understand.

Your sister, Alice

Adventures Of The Twins

A WINKY BLINKY RIDDLE

The Riddle Lady said next day in Riddle Land, "We have had several winter riddles, so this is a summer riddle. It's about something very small and bright and only seen on a summer night. Listen now, Nancy and Nick! Now listen everybody! Here's the riddle:

"My home's a garden where the flowers stay wide awake for hours and hours. And then at dusk they fold up tight And say good-night."

"But the house I rent—a big red rose. Is not so sleepy I suppose. Because it does not shut up so! And out I go."

"I am the watchman, if you please. I watch the flowers and garden trees. No one comes in, no one goes out. If I'm about."

"My lantern winks and winks and blinks. And Mister Moon he blinks and blinks. And so between us both, why we watch carefully."

"For fairies and the tricky elves Would just come in and help themselves. To leaves of this, and buds of that For dress and hat."

"And caterpillars! My, oh me! They're out for food—to get it free. They'd gobble stems and break off leaves. The greedy thieves!"

"I fly around most everywhere. I peep in here, I look in there. What would this lovely garden be Were it not for the moon and me?"

"I only go out when it's clear,

THE MAJOR EXTENDS AN INVITATION TO ALL HIS CRONIES

STATE CONTINUES ITS ASSESSMENT ON BANK STOCKS

Building and Loan Associations to Be Assessed in Same Manner

Ad valorem taxes against bank stock in Wisconsin will be levied during the present year the same as was done last year, according to a member of the state tax commission. This means that state and national banks will be assessed for taxes under the tax law passed by the 1923 legislature again this year, unless the act is held unconstitutional by the courts, it is said.

Numerous suits are now pending, contesting validity of the bank tax law. Citizens National bank of Appleton, is one of the contesting banks. However, the intention of the commission to assess the taxes again this year indicates that the state will not recognize the suits unless definitely enjoined.

Assessing on the ad valorem basis instead of by income tax, means an increase in taxes to the state of approximately $1,500,000 annually according to tax officials. Banks are strenuously contesting the validity of the law, claiming it is contrary to federal banking statutes.

It also became known that the tax commission probably will levy the ad valorem taxes against bond and investment companies of the state as a means of getting an absolute test of the question in the supreme court. The commission has held two public hearings on the question of assessing such taxes against bond and investment companies and building and loan associations. It was stated that no further hearings will be held on the subject, the commission having obtained sufficient testimony to determine its course.

"Shingle" Bob Growing In Popularity Among Short-Haired Damsels

Girls' Agree That Bobbed Hair Is Here to Stay But They Differ on Way It Should Be Cut.

Let the men and all others opposed to bobbed hair say what they will, bobbed hair is here to stay. That's what and if you care to dispute it go to any flapper who has tasted the freedom of bobbed hair. You will soon know that women certainly ARE going to keep their hair bobbed no matter what is said and in spite of hairdressers' conventions decree that hair must be worn long.

The beautiful part of this convention is that while many things are decreed about hair dressing, few of them are carried out. It wasn't so long ago that the hue and cry went up that bobbed hair was doomed and that in a short time all those who had short locks would be crying their eyes out at night and getting up early in the morning to fuss and fume with the scraggly locks. But it isn't so.

GET SECOND LAUGH
It's a "grand and glorious feeling" to snicker up your sleeve at those who once declared that "You'd be sorry by and by" say the bobbed hair girls. More and more girls are having their hair cut, according to the conclusions reached by a reporter after visiting the beauty shops.

A girl who is in high school told a hairdresser that three or four new bobbed heads appear at the school each day. But don't get the idea that it is only young people who are having their hair cut, for many of the older women are cutting their hair realizing the comfort and convenience of this style. It is almost safe to prophesy that before long a girl with long hair will be an oddity, while bobbed hair will be universal, hairdressers' affair.

LIKE THE SHINGLE CUT
At the Varsity Beauty Shop it was said that most of the girls have their hair cut according to the style that suits them best, but of course it must be in style. The shingle bob is very popular right now, but very few real shingles have been seen in Appleton. Most of the girls preferring the semi-shingle, which is a cut that is less severe and less trying, for if one would look well with the real shingle bob, she must have a head that is well shaped. Then, too, many girls are rather afraid to try the severe shingle bob if it doesn't look well, it is a long time before the hair is long enough to comb any other way.

The correct way to cut hair, said one of the barbers at the Cozy barber shop, is to cut the hair parted in the middle so that the ends will be even all the way around. Then, if you prefer to have it parted some other way, part it after the hair has been cut evenly and you will have no trouble.

ABOUT DYED HAIR
Another interesting bit of information that was picked up concerns dyed or bleached hair. Women who dye their hair and then have it cut are encouraged to comb it straight back, so that the roots of the hair will not need so much retouching. As the hair grows longer the base comes in in colored naturally and so it is necessary to keep coloring or bleaching it so that it will not be streaked or ugly. If the hair is parted on the side it is harder and more awkward to retouch it than if it is combed straight back.

Most of the girls have what is called an ordinary bob, which means hair parted on the side or middle, held in place with a barrette and cut evenly all the way around. The hair cut in this fashion can easily be dressed and is becoming to most girls.

Miss Emily Runzheimer, proprietress of the Ivory Beauty Parlors said there are many ways to comb bobbed hair but that most people use the style that best suits their features. For instance, if a girl has a high forehead she undoubtedly would look best with a Dutch bob which means that the hair is parted in the middle and cut with bangs. A person with a thin or long face would never look well with a shingle bob, for to have the hair cut in this manner means that it is cropped close in the back like boys' hair, while the front hair is left longer. A person with a full face looks better with this style. It is seldom that a person with thin hair looks well with the shingle. Because when the hair is clipped close too much of the scalp shows.

GIRLS' EXPERIMENT
Most of the girls who have their hair cut know just how they want it, for most of them have experimented at home. At some homes parents object to having the daughters hair cut, but the little lady decides that it's going to be cut, come what may, and she enters the beauty shop with the spirit of bravado, climbs into the chair and before long it's all over. Some of the hairdressers will tell you, shut their eyes tight and are even afraid to look in the glass afterwards for fear the style won't suit them. Others won't wait their turn when they come in, but go to the next place, for fear they will lose courage while they wait.

But you must hear about the "pineapple" bob, which is being featured in the city. The hair is cut in tiers all the way around and then curled, this giving it the "pineapple" effect. Little of this style has been seen in Appleton and it is not known how popular it will become.

ASK ROTARY TRIM IN STORE WINDOWS

Decorating Committee for Conference Designs Inexpensive Decoration

Decorating of every store in the business district is the aim of the Rotary club while the Tenth district conference is in session here April 29 and 30. Most of the merchants already have indicated their intention to cooperate.

The conference decorating committee has arranged to supply a simple yet attractive form of decoration that can be purchased for less than a dollar. Effort will be made to have this used in all stores so that there will be uniform trimming all along College-ave and intersecting streets.

Crope paper is used in this special trim, which will be put up in packages to take care of 10 feet of show window. A band across the top contains repeated printing of the Rotary emblem in the club colors, blue and gold. Paper in a curtain effect is attached on each side below this streamer. A large placard also is supplied, containing the emblem and the word "welcome." The trim is placed against the glass and provides a decoration that is easy to put up and is attractive after it is placed.

Printing of the crope paper was done at the Tuttle Press plant. L. J. Marshall, a Rotarian, has charge of the sale to merchants. Considerable outdoor decorating also will be attempted. A contract will be let to a decorating company and it will place flags, emblems and other trimming in the downtown section.

APPLETON QUINTET SWAMPS PLATTEVILLE, 41 TO 11

Orange Five Advances To Second Series Of State Cage Tournament

Manitowoc Will Be Opponent of Wilson Men in Thursday Contest; Team Looks Like Title Prospect.

Appleton high school Wednesday afternoon defeated Platteville, 41 to 11, in its first state tournament game in Madison, and advanced to the second day's play in which it is scheduled to lock horns with Manitowoc. The Orange piled up the highest score of the day and won in a walkaway. Platteville brought a strong offense to bear during the first few minutes of the game, but apparently used up all its stuff in the effort, and thereafter there was nothing to it for the Orange.

The Appleton offense was as fast as any on the floor during the first round. Koll dodged his way through the Platteville guard for six field goals, while Courtney contributed four. In order to save his regulars for future games, Coach David Wilson sent in Murphy, Hiebel and Fryer, his substitutes. These men found their way into the scoring column as well as the regulars.

KOLL STARTS SCORING Koll started the scoring with a field goal, but Carman, Platteville captain, evened the score with one of his own a moment later. Scoring was at a standstill for several minutes thereafter, but when the first period ended, Appleton was on the long end of a 6 to 0 score.

In the second quarter the Orange kept up the good work, and led 17 to 7, at half time. Appleton tightened its defense in this period and kept the Platteville youngsters out of the danger zone, while the Orange attack broke through the hostile guard for a big lead.

The second half was a walkaway. Appleton's defense had exhausted all its plays at the start, and after the Appleton youngsters got going they got through almost at will. Koll and Courtney starred for the winners, but every man on the team showed up well.

The lineups: Appleton—Hornbeck, RF; Koll, LF; Scheurle, C; Courtney, RG; Hillman, LG. Platteville—Jones, RF; Karmann, LF; Goldy, C; Wettenhiller, RG; Steinhoff, LG.

Substitutions—Hiebel for Hornbeck, Frazer for Scheurle, Murphy for Courtney, Gable for Karmann, Horn for Steinhoff.

MANITOWOC WINS In the remaining afternoon games Manitowoc beat Watertown, 15 to 6. River Falls humbled Wisconsin Rapids, 19 to 6, and Fond du Lac trimmed Arcadia, 26 to 3.

In the evening games Oregon won from Rice Lake, 16 to 12. Janesville eliminated Eagle River, 25 to 24, and Superior turned back Wausau, 38 to 19. LaCrosse defeated Marinette, 25 to 3.

Thursday afternoon Appleton finds itself pitted against Manitowoc, one of the most threatening teams in the tournament. Since Appleton defeated Manitowoc early in the season, that team has won all of its games, 12 in number and is still going strong. The Platteville contest was not a difficult test for the Orange, but the Appleton youngsters will have to extend themselves when they lock horns with Manitowoc.

SPORT VIEWS AND NEWS

Ed "Strangler" Lewis still is heavy weight wrestling champion of the world. Stanislaus Zbyszko, veteran Pole, failed in his attempt to wrest the title from the rugged champion Tuesday night in Chicago. Strange to say, the Strangler did not win by means of his famous strangle, the headlock, but rung in a painful toe hold which forced the Pole to quit.

The Conley-Zwick headliner of the Green Bay boxing card scheduled for Friday is attracting statewide attention. Milwaukee sport scribes are hoarding the fact that it is not being held in the Cream City. If Zwick wins this match, he will be on the high road to success in the middle world, but if the loser, Conley will be his portion. The "Brawl" will do his best, no doubt, but Conley is some scrapper.

Baseball prospects in Neenah-Menasha are all rosy, according to reports. With most of last season's lineup intact, the Twin cities are looking forward to another pennant. "Speed" Lunn will be back on the mound when the baseballers get into action, and expects to outdo all his previous work.

No wonder Jack Dempsey is not overly eager to risk his title—and his plain but serviceable features—in battling husky sockers for his title. An offer of $1,000,000—one million dollars, count 'em—for a couple of appearances before a movie camera would tempt almost anyone away from anything, and with the ambitious Kearns directing his destiny, Jack has about as much chance of refusing this bid as the proverbial snowball.

Firm Incorporated A business partnership is being effected between Edward P. Alesch, Appleton realtor, and William N. Riley, formerly of Escanaba, Mich. The firm will carry on a real estate and insurance business. A series of incorporation have been effected in the territory of state's office, to that effect. The members of the corporation are Mr. Alesch, Mr. Riley, Helen G. Alesch and Rosella Riley.

REDS SEE PITCHER DONOHUE AS AGE OF 1924 MOUND STAFF

Club Banks on Youthful Star Rather Than Cuban Veteran Luque

Orlando, Fla.—On the theory that a pitcher who has enjoyed extraordinary success one season seldom returns with an equally banner year, the Reds are not counting on Luque the Cuban, as their ace this season. Naturally Luque is expected to be one of the pitching stars, but the feeling is that he will not lead the staff.

This is young Donohue's year, according to all indications. Donohue, who is normally sparse as to frame, reported eight pounds heavier this spring and seems to have filled out generally.

This added weight ought to help him in several respects. For one thing, it will enable him to stand up under a hard grueling fight. It will also give him a terrific mound speed and power.

Luque won 27 games and lost eight last year. Donohue won 15 and lost nine. These results may be reversed when the final figures are made in the fall.

THREE BAGGER BY WEAK HITTER ENDS PITCHING CAREER

Passing of Ordinary Pitcher Gave Washington Great Outfielder

St. Louis, Mo.—Star outfielder of the Washington club, came to the Nationals as a pitcher. Rice was highly touted but had trouble getting away to a good start, largely because he was handicapped by lack of control.

For some time he managed to stagger along with mediocre success. He began to lose confidence in his ability as a pitcher, and the Washington club began to entertain the same feelings.

Rice, very fast and a good hitter, managed to break into the lineup several times as a pinch hitter. When not pitching, Rice practiced in the outfield and developed rapidly.

Often some minor happening shapes the career of a player. A three-base hit by George Daus, veteran pitcher of the Detroit club, caused Rice to give up his desire to be a great pitcher.

Daus, never a great hitter, broke up an extra inning game for Rice by his triple. Coming into the club house that evening Rice told the world he would never pitch another ball game. He made good what was then merely regarded as a threat.

The passing of an ordinary pitcher gave Washington a great outfielder.

Nashville, Tenn.—Tommy Gibbons, St. Paul high heavyweight, and Jack McFarland, Detroit heavyweight, were matched for 8 rounds at Nashville, April 3.

New Orleans — Eddie McKenna, New Orleans bantamweight, sent a challenge to Abe Goldstein for a title bout.

Roudebush-Schroeder Roll 1015 In Doubles Of Women's Pin Tilts

Ralph-Heller Combination Toppled 968 Maples for Second Place; Ellen Dunn Smashes 191 Pins in One Game.

Seventeen pairs of Women's Club bowlers Wednesday occupied the Arcade alleys when they rolled in the doubles events of the tournament which will finish the schedule this week. Several very creditable scores were piled up, but the Roudebush-Schroeder combination was superior to all the rest. This team smashed an aggregate of 1015 pins for high score, while Ralph-Heller rolled 968 for second place.

Ellen Dunn toppled 191 maples in a single game which put her in the lead for high game.

Six pairs rolled on the afternoon shift, and the other eleven did their stuff at night, beginning at 7 o'clock. Following are the scores:

5:15 VOLLEY BALL TEAM BEATS NOON CLASS OF Y. M. C. A.

Tournament Planned for Businessmen Expected to Start on April 2

A gymnasium class Wednesday evening defeated the noon class two out of three games in their volleyball match, and thereby won the privilege of playing the 5:15 Tuesday class for the championship of the Y. M. C. A. This was the second defeat suffered by the noon class in the championship tourney, but the men are planning a cleanup of the leaders in their next contest.

The first Wednesday game was extremely close, and neither team led by more than one or two points at any time during the contest. The final score was 16 to 14 in favor of the 5:15 class, a costly error by Zweidler giving the victors the necessary margin.

The 5:15 gymnasts also took the second game, going into the lead, 15 to 11, shortly before the end.

In the third contest, the noon team staged a comeback, and won, 15 to 11.

Pre-game arrangements called for five games, the best three to win, but owing to a basketball game scheduled to come off on the Y. M. C. A. court, it became necessary to cut the number down to three. For this reason the noon class is confident it would have won the match had it been permitted to continue, for the men were going strong in the final game, and had little trouble in defeating their rivals.

Plans now are underway for a volleyball tournament, and it is expected this will be begun on April 2.

STIRLING MAY OUTWEIGH M'TIQUE IN TITLE BOUT

New York—Fifteen rounds of boxing a day is the menu set before Mike McGuire, world's light blue veyweight champion, and his youthful challenger, Young Stirling, Atlanta, Ga., in preparation for their fifteen round title bout in Newark next Monday night. McGuire is finishing his training in Madison Square garden while Stirling is polishing up in the Newark A. C. gymnasium. McGuire's boxing weight now is 137 1/2 pounds, but he expects to be down to 162 when he steps into the ring, while the challenger weighs 168 but may possibly increase his weight to 166, "Pa" Stirling said yesterday, due to his present good condition.

The Nut Cracker

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla.—Well, I suppose you wide-eyed listeners read in the papers that the good Senator Firpo was going to turn his manly shoulders to the prize ring and quit forever because the citizens just won't stop idolizing him.

Firpo used to be one of the best bottle washers in South America and in that capacity was closer to the blue-blooded aristocracy of his community than you'd ever guess, provided you are a terrible guesser.

This Chesterfieldian gentleman, who eats raw meat and sleeps on the floor and hangs his coat on the chandelier, finds his finer sensibilities in revolt against the notoriety that his skill as a fighter brings.

It wasn't until recently that Firpo became rich enough to recognize the existence of sensibilities in his makeup.

When he first came to this country and took up lodging in the basement of a Newark (N. J.) shop he probably imagined sensibilities were something to be taken in pink capsules at hourly intervals, if at all.

And one of his bitterest complaints at the time was that the newspaper boys wouldn't give him a tumble. "Notoriety! Why, that egg was willing to do a nose dive off the Woolworth spire to get it."

The main trouble with the distinguished senator is that he has been persuaded to accept himself too seriously. As first slingers go, he is a fair specimen of the breed, but unlike some of the others, Dempsey, for example, he hasn't been able to keep his spacious dogs on the ground.

Fi, or would have got along much better with himself and everybody else if he had hired a guy to constantly remind him. "Why, I knew you when you were a bottle washer."

(Next week Straight Dope Benny will discuss the divorce problem and other humorous matters.)

JOHNSON GIVES GRIFFITH CLUB CONFIDENT AIR

Major League Managers Start Wielding Pruning Knife in Rookie Ranks.

Training Camps—Walter Johnson, war scarred veteran of 17 campaigns and a member of the Washington Senators, holder of quite a few major league records and recognized as one of the greatest pitchers in the game today, is displaying mid-season form at present, and has given Griffith's club an air of confidence. Griffith, although not predicting a pennant for his club, feels confident that the Senators are going to cause considerable trouble in the American league this summer.

The pruning knife has appeared in several training camps, Stanley Harris of the Washington Senators being the greatest manipulator. The pilot ended the aspirations of Shad Roe for the season by returning the young southpaw to the Chattanooga Southern association club and then followed up by shipping three more rookies back to the bushes. Broken, Moon and Dudley to the Minneapolis American Association club.

Down at Winterhaven, Fla., acting Manager Johnny Evers of the Chicago White Sox let it be known that his orders must be obeyed until Manager Frank Chance reports to the club about April 4. Failure of John Inman to obey the Trojan's orders resulted in the young shortstop being sent back to Maysville, Ky. Inman gave promise of winning a permanent berth at the start of the training grind but failed to keep up his work. More releases are anticipated after Secretary Grabiner has conferred with Owner Charles Comiskey.

Manager Miller Huggins announced that at least six rookies, five of them pitchers, on the Yankee roster will be on their way back to the minors within a few days.

George Sisler failed to connect with the ball in five trips to the plate Wednesday but this did not prevent the Browns from defeating the Athletics Southern association. Get Thom as, veteran Cleveland catcher, got in to uniform and coached the Browns during the game.

SHIOCTON WITHOUT PHONES UNTIL 1901

First Telephone in Neighboring Village Was Installed 23 Years Ago

The first telephone installed at Shiocton was in 1901 when a line was strung between Shiocton and Shiocton, meeting at Stephentown, was completed. The line was operated by Jacquot and Scott, both of Hortonville. This information was received from C. B. Wolfinger, manager of the Shiocton telephone exchange.

B. R. Rowman, now a farmer west of Leominster was manager of the company's business in Shiocton and, in 1901, after becoming the proprietor of the line, moved the exchange from the Morse hotel to the building now used as a storeroom by the Seymour Shiocton Telephone Company, the present proprietors.

Mr. Rowman before selling his interests to the Seymour Shiocton Telephone company extended his lines to Black Creek, Leominster and Seymour and installed exchanges at these points.

The officers of company that have improved and are now operating the Rowman lines, are William Wallen, president, W. J. Kimball, vice president, and C. J. Jackson, secretary.

The first telephone connection of private building at Shiocton was made in 1902. On one end of the wire was the store of B. G. Pemberton and on the other end his residence, two blocks away. This line consisted of a single wire grounded.

Because this line gave perfect satisfaction, Irving Hamilton, employed by Mr. Wolfinger to run the second private wire in Shiocton, from his store to his residence.

The third private wire installed connected the blacksmith shop of Paul Siefaff with his residence. Rebuilt instruments procured by Mr. Pemberton from a Milwaukee dealer were used by all these expert men in telephone service. And the excellent service these men got from their private wires soon aroused a general demand for telephone connection through a central exchange.

As a result of that demand and painstaking service by each company in control, 175 local subscribers in Shiocton are now hooked up with the Seymour-Shiocton Telephone Company exchange.

WIFE ASKS BALM FOR DEATH OF HUSBAND

Janesville, Wis. — A case of state-wide interest is that of Mrs. Clara E. Cochrane, Janesville, against the builders of the Saxe Brothers' theater here, in which $14,000 damages are asked, and which will be tried on May 19 by a jury in Rock Co. Circuit court here.

The action is a result of the collapse of the theater here on Sept. 19, 1923, resulting in the death of Cochrane, who was the plumbing contractor.

The defendants are T. S. Willis, Janesville contractor, Martin Tullgren & Sons, Milwaukee, architects, C. Hanneke company, Milwaukee, steel contractors, the Janesville Theater company, and Thomas and John Saxe, Milwaukee theater owners.

Hagen Fails To Play Well In Dixieland

The Goddess of Golf is a fickle Dame.

Last winter the great Walter Hagen was the big sensation on the southern links.

Winning the tournaments staged at the various winter resorts of the south was a succession of successes for Hagen. He was practically unbeatable.

This winter, while Hagen has played good golf, it has not been the super hand that featured his play of last season as a result he has been finishing among the also rans.

It is a rather strange coincidence that Joe Kirkwood, Hagen's golfing partner, is hogging the spotlight in the south. In winning the three big events in Texas he played remarkable golf.

Wild Pitcher Reforms Into Star Fielder

Sarasota, Fla. — Because Bill Terry of Memphis, Tenn., is a family man and loves "kiddies" he is now in the big leagues with the Giants and is accounted a sensational player.

Terry came up to the Giants a couple of years ago as a left-handed pitcher and was terrible. McGraw noted, however, that he took a nice cut at the ball. Later he learned the young man was a father of three children.

"Say Terry, come here," called out McGraw one day. "I'm going to send you out to Toledo. Forget that you ever were a pitcher. Tell Bresnahan, to make a first baseman out of you I'll bring you back next spring and see how you look."

Terry was a wonder with Toledo in the American Association last year, he hit .377 and led the first basemen in fielding. Cincinnati is said to have offered $50,000 for him.

STAR RECRUIT DOES NOT YEARN FOR BIG LEAGUE

Conally, Right-handed Sox Pitching Rookie, Would Rather Play Minors

Winter Haven, Fla. — George Conally, a right-handed pitcher who came to the White Sox from Galveston last fall, is somewhat of a curiosity. Conally doesn't give a rap whether he stays in the big leagues or not.

"I'd rather play in the minors, anyway," he insists.

Conally happens to be a likely prospect and Ed Walsh, who has him in charge, is seeking to convince him that the big league isn't such a terrible place after all. Conally likes to play where he knows people.

"Shut, I could walk up and down Michigan boulevard all day long and not see anybody I know," he laments.

FOND DU LAC FARMERS TO HAVE 2-DAY RODEO

Fond du Lac — During the two days in July this city will take on the appearance of a typical western town of the early days, with rodeos, bull throwing and riding contests, broncho busting and special horse races.

John M. Kelley, Holstein breeder and expounder of the idea that extensive advertising is the only thing that can save the American farmer from ruin, has leased the Fond du Lac county fair grounds for two days.

World famous riders and persons of note in the theatrical and sport world have been engaged by Mr. Kelley to entertain the farmers. At least 15,000 people from all parts of the state are expected to come for the event.

Lewis Locks Chief In Room While He Weds

Chicago — Ed (Strangler) Lewis, world's heavyweight wrestling champion, was married here late on Wednesday to Miss Bessie McNear of Kansas City, Mo. Billy Sandow, Lewis' manager, to whom the champion is under contract not to marry while champion, was kept locked in a hotel room by Lewis' friends until after the ceremony.

The ceremony was performed by Dr. Fred Stone at the First Methodist temple in the heart of the loop. Lewis and his bride were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Bratfield of Chicago.

Sandow is said to have prevented Lewis' marriage last year to a Russian princess whom the champion met in Paris. Miss McNear, an attractive brunette, met Lewis in Kansas City where he staged many of his important matches. The champion, who is about 35 years old, once was married to a San Jose woman physician from whom he is divorced.

FIRST CONSIDERATION

in the building of a home, is the selection of the lot. We have choice building sites in all parts of the city and at all prices.

The far sighted person knows that after a lot is acquired, the erection of the house follows must come easily.

Many of these lots also represent good investments, as they must certainly advance in price in a city with the rapid development that Appleton has.

Lots can be purchased on terms. See us.

though many dealers offered freely at liberal concessions. As such conditions only served to decrease confidence among buyers and none took cheese that was not absolutely needed at the moment. It was clearly a buyer's market. Cured cheese was almost at a standstill although prices were well maintained.

CLEAR SITE FOR NEW CONVENT FOR SCHOOL TEACHERS

St. Joseph School Sisters Will Be in New Home by Sept. 1

Hoffman Construction company, which was awarded the general contract of the sisters' home of St. Joseph school, commenced clearing the site Wednesday preparatory to starting the work of excavation. The first obstruction removed was the former county garage.

The general contract calls for a building to cost approximately $54,000, but it is expected by the time the fixtures are installed these figures will be increased to nearly $60,000. The contract calls for the completion of the building by Aug. 15, which will make it possible for the sisters to vacate their present quarters in St. Joseph school building before the opening of school next fall.

The increased room which will be used for school purposes will make it possible to add a junior high school department at the opening of the next school year. Additional room will be provided also for certain grades now crowded.

The sisters home will be completed about the time of the fiftieth anniversary of the sisters of Notre Dame taking charge of the school and turning over of the new structure to them will be made a jubilee event.

PARENTS ATTEND SCHOOL SESSION

Debate on Merits of Guernseys and Holsteins Features Program

A large number of parents and friends visited Sunny Valley school, District No. 2, Cicero last Friday when Patrons day was observed. The regular program of classes was conducted by the teacher, Miss Esther Eubolz, including classes in supervised study, socialized recitations and silent reading exercises. Features of the program were spelling and arithmetic contests and the display of sewing and school work.

The question, "Resolved that Guernseys are better than Holsteins" was debated by a group of boys. The winning team which supported the negative composed of Ray Wittuhn, Walter Roloff and Harvey Ruhn. The affirmative team was composed of Emro Plantikow, George Wussow and Clarence Court. Mrs. Wilmer C. Moir, Mrs. R. C. Schultze, Mrs. Walter A. Blake, Mrs. Harriet Thiel and Mrs. Arnold Thiel were judges.

The program closed with the song, "America," sung by the audience, followed by a social hour. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Schultze, Letha Schultze, Mrs. Theodore Ruhn, Earl Ruhn, Mrs. A. Rheumatic Pains Go Swollen Joints Vanish

Twisted, swollen, unsightly joints are rapidly freed from pain and brought back to normal with Rheuma. Lame people walk without aid, sleep comes to those who have been unable to lie in bed, hands that were helpless because of terrible rheumatism are now able to do their share for the support of the family. Rheuma is a wonderful remedy for rheumatism, gout, neuritis, lumbago and neuralgia. It is a wonder-worker. It never falters, never gives up until every vestige of poison is expelled from the body. Rheuma acts on stomach, liver, kidneys and blood all at once and quick it brings long wanted-for comfort to distressed sufferers. Schintz Bros. and all good druggists sell it with guarantee of money back if it isn't good.

Postpone Meeting

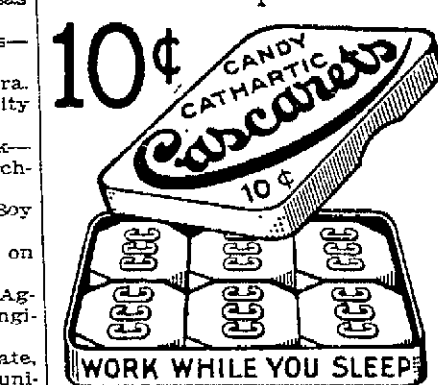

The meeting of the religious class which was to have been held at Columbia hall Thursday evening has been postponed because of a rehearsal of those taking part in the play, "The Upper Room." No definite date has been announced for the class meeting.

Will Take Off All Excess Fat

Do you know that there is a simple, harmless, effective remedy for overweightness that may be used safely and secretly by any man or woman who is losing the slimness of youth? There is, and it is none other than the tablet form of the now famous Marmola Prescription Tablets. You can well expect to reduce steadily and easily without going through long sieges of tiresome exercise and starvation diet. Marmola Prescription Tablets are sold by all druggists the world over at one dollar for a box, or you can secure them direct from the Marmola Co., 4812 Woodward-Avenue, Detroit, Mich., on receipt of price.

SELECT 3 JUDGES FOR HEISS CONTEST

Arrangements are completed for the William Heiss memorial oratorical contest at Appleton high school which will take place in the assembly room at 9:30 Friday morning. George Dame will represent the class of 1916 which presents a cup to the school each year and K. A. Windeshelm will preside at the contest. Dr. D. O. Kinsman, Dr. J. A. Holmes and W. S. Ford will be the judges.

Each of the contestants chose his own oration from a list of orations obtained for the contest by Mr. Windeshelm, who has been the coach. Carl Engler will give "The New Frontier," Robert Pugh, "The Christ of the Andes," Miss Theresa Heinzkill, "Abraham Lincoln," Richard Neller, "The Law of the Land" and Maurice Lewis "The Foundation of Peace."

Two farmers of this vicinity recently invested in two new teams. Herman Schabo of the town of Center, who lost a horse through sickness some time ago, has purchased a valuable team, and Tracy Wise has purchased a team from Joseph Ulmen, Appleton.

DEMAND FOLEY PILLS

FOLEY PILLS, a diuretic stimulant for the kidneys, have brought relief to thousands of sufferers from kidney disorders caused through the improper working of these organs. FOLEY PILLS will promptly flush the kidneys, thereby removing injurious waste matter. Mrs. O. C. Alexander, R. No. 35, Montrose, Mo., states: "I received the package of FOLEY PILLS, and have been greatly benefited by their use." Sold everywhere. adv.

Here Is More Evidence That Spring Is Here

Two more signs of spring have been reported by observers of the seasons. The two signs are three robins and two tourist automobiles. The observer of the automobiles is Joseph Tenne, Appleton rural carrier, who met a car bearing an Indiana license plate Monday and another showing an Illinois license plate.

There is no question about the robins, so says Arthur Fluno, and he is willing to give his affidavit they were no gosbeaks. He saw three of them with flaming breasts at the north shore of Lake Winnebago where Mr. Fluno lives.

Mrs. William Bergholz of the town of Center, is visiting for a week at the home of her sister, Mrs. Gutt, in Bowler, Wis.
